FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,
HENRY CLAY

NEW-ORLEANS
WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 12, 1843.

From the N. O. Tropic.

OH, HO—Col. Bullitt, of the Bee, has now that he has a little leisure on his hands, attend to a few small matters, the charming Mrs. Ann Royal. Speaking in her paper, the Hunter, of the seizure of the Sandwich Islands, the lovely Ann says:

"The occupation of those islands by the British, published in that great gun, the New Orleans Bee, which is called an outrage," "an capture," and every epithet to excite the ill will of our people against England.—There are some people that cannot be at peace; like their father of old, they would make war in heaven.—Can these be Christians? No."

Call you that assailing us? Why the lovely Ann, in dubbing us the son of the Devil, only means to insinuate that we are nearly related to her. We must decline the "cult impeachment" notwithstanding the "winsome way" the cherub asserts her consanguinity.

POETRY.—We have heard so many disparaging comments on our poetic effusion of yesterday, that we are almost tempted to swear that we will never essay another verse until we become perfect masters of the art of versification.—Like the Irishman who took an oath that he would never get into water until he learned how to swim.

☞ Were it not for that cut, representing a "coon" upon his back, the Herald would be hard up for matter to enlighten its readers. Yesterday our cotemporary had the "coon upon his head—to-morrow, in all likelihood, it will exhibit the varmint in some other amusing attitude. We begin to think "that same old coon" the wittiest thing, living or dead, in the Herald establishment.

COL. JOHNSON.—While the partisans of Mr. CALHOUN and Mr. VAN BUREN are engaged in the energetic advocacy of the claims of their respective favorites, they seem entirely to have lost sight of a candidate for the presidency, who, if not as prominent or as distinguished as the above named gentlemen, possesses a host of ardent and attached supporters, and is canvassing that portion of the country in which he is presumed to be the first choice of the people, with a zeal and perseverance that are rapidly rendering him a dangerous competitor in the field. We allude to RICHARD M. JOHNSON. It is reported of Old Tecumseh that he has been heard to declare that he will yield his nomination to MARTIN VAN BUREN, and to him only. If the National Convention should disregard the pretensions of the Sage of Lindenwold, Col. JOHNSON will neglect no vantage ground whereby he may secure his own nomination. We can assure the locofocos that, when in earnest, he is a troublesome customer—one not easily wheeled off or choked down. In the West he is vastly popular—already he has received the State nominations of Arkansas and Kentucky, and will very probably obtain those of Illinois, Indiana and Missouri. In Pennsylvania he is considered the second choice of the democracy. Mr. VAN BUREN never was popular in the Key Stone State—Mr. CALHOUN stands no chance there, and when the delegation from Pennsylvania perceive that Mr. BUCHANAN's nomination is out of the question, they will most likely cast their votes for JOHNSON. In Ohio he has a host of friends, and many contingencies may arise under which he would obtain the vote of the locofocos from that State. At all events Col. JOHNSON will go into the National Convention with about 45 votes to back him—a very respectable number. Should he succeed in obtaining those of Pennsylvania and Ohio, he will have nearly one half of the whole number of votes. The discussions between the Calhounite and Van Burenites will not affect him.—His votes come from a section where neither of the two prominent candidates have much weight. In fact the farther these lands are carried, the better it is for Col. Dick. He is looking upon the game now being played with the coolness and tact of an experienced veteran, who sees that out of these very schisms will probably grow his own advancement. The locos would do well to keep a tight look-out upon the Colonel's movements, or he will give them trouble in the Convention, and probably out of it.

☞ Our attention was attracted yesterday by the flag of the United States, (an ensignia that always commands our attention) suspended from the window of the N. O. Herald office. We were about making enquiry of our cotemporaries, to know what national fete was on hand, when we descried a "skunk's skin" dangling at the end of a staff, close by the stars and stripes. We took it for granted that some private affair of the Herald was being commemorated, and passed on, without seeking to know the personal objects that were subserved by a desecration of the national colors.

☞ The Locofocos had a stupendous time of it last night. Their speechifying, canvassing and mustering were curious to behold. After diligent enquiry we learned that all their display and hubbub was in honor of the defeat of SAM BARTON, Esq., fate Locofoco candidate to represent the city of New Orleans in the Legislature.

☞ We are sorry to learn that the excellent and amiable postmaster of St. John the Baptist, Dr. NORVELL, who for five years performed the duties of his office to the perfect satisfaction of every one, has recently been removed by the President, to make room for a member of the locofoco party. We can imagine no reason for the dismissal of Dr. N., save the fact that he preserves the same political principles now, which he professed, when he was appointed. Since his removal, we have seen a letter signed by a number of the most influential and respectable citizens of St. John the Baptist, and written at the period when the dismissal of Dr. NORVELL was apprehended. The letter speaks in glowing terms of Dr. N.'s zeal and merit, and deprecates his displacement as an act of sovereign injustice.

PENMANSHIP.—Many of our readers have no doubt seen some very beautiful specimens of penmanship at the Merchant's Exchange, executed by Mr. W. A. Dunlap. This gentleman has opened a class for the purpose of giving instruction in this art, as will be perceived on referring to his advertisement, in this morning's paper.

FOR LOUISVILLE.—Those desirous of going west will do well to take passage on the Alice Gray. She will leave the city for Louisville at 10 o'clock this morning. Her accommodations are excellent, and Capt. CANTRE is one of the most attentive and skillful officers on the western waters.

☞ At the sale made yesterday by the Sheriff of the Commercial Court, in the suit of the U. States vs. the U. S. Bank, the following lots were sold at the following prices:

Lot No. 1,	$27,300	Lot No. 8,	$16,600
2,	11,100	9,	3,425
3,	13,300	10,	6,000
4,	5,500	11,	2,050
5,	20,000	12 & 60,	37,500
6,	25,100	13,	1,000
7,	24,500	14,	4,000
		16,	9,500

Total amount of first day's sales, : : : : $215,850

☞ The Nashville papers come to us full of hope and confidence as to the result of the elections to be held in Tennessee next month. The opinion of most well-informed persons is, that Gov. JONES will be re-elected by a handsome majority. The whigs are offering to be freely on the issue, but taken are rather shy.

SUBMARINE EXPLOSION.—Professor GRANT informs us that he will, to-morrow evening, between four and five o'clock, execute the experiment of blowing up the hull of a boat by means of a sub-marine battery. The experiment will be made opposite Algiers.

☞ Captain Josiah Cleveland, of Oswego, N. Y. one of the Bunker Hill Veterans, who was present at the celebration of the 17th, died of influenza at Charlestown, Mass., on Friday morning. He was about 90 years of age.

☞ Mr. Bloecker, of Albany, N. Y., late Charge of the U. S. at the Hague, has arrived in the Great Western, accompanied by his wife, a native of Holland.

NAVAL.

Lieut. H. H. BELL has been placed in command of the United States steamship Union, now at Norfolk, Lieut. HUNTER having been detached on other duties.

The U. S. sloop of war Boston, Capt. LONG, at Gibraltar, March 11, was to sail first wind for Boston, via Gibraltar.

The U. S. schr Flirt, Lieut. Com'dr DAVIS, 9 days from Havana, via Indian Key, arrived at Norfolk on the 3d inst. The U. S. brig Boxer touched at Indian Key the day before the Flirt arrived there, and sailed for Nassau.

The U. S brig Oregon, Lieut. Com'dg L. M. POWELL, having on board as passengers, most of the officers of the steamer Poinsett, sailed from Pensacola on the 5th inst, bound to Norfolk.

The French corvette La Brilliante, Com. REYNARD, arrived at Pensacola on the 6th inst, from Vera Cruz via Galveston.

THE RECEPTION OF THE War Tool of WASHINGTON took place yesterday afternoon. It was escorted to the city by the Jackson Independent Rifles and Duquesne Guards. Col. Travillo acting as Chief Marshall. Upon its arrival at its destination on Wood street, the thanks of the Committee were tendered the Military in a neat speech from the Hon. Wm. Wilkins.

It will be pitched on the Fourth of July in the rotunda of the New Court House, for the gratification of public company.—Pittsburgh Sun, 10th ult.

MALAGA GRAPE.—A gentleman of this city, about 18 years ago, planted in his garden a number of seeds of the Malaga grape—one of which ger minated and this summer, for the first time, the vine is full of fruit.—The grapes are not yet ripe, but are double the size of the common garden grape. The seed were planted by JACOB OTT, Esq., in his garden on Tivoli circle, where or ine said fruit now be seen.

[illegible] Your obedient serv't, WM. FRERET, Mayor.

The question to adhere to the veto of the Mayor, [illegible] ayes and nays were called for, when it appeared that Messrs. Bureau, Boylan and Barthelemy, had voted in the affirmative, 3 ayes—and that Messrs. De Ferriet, Delarum, Le Blanc and Boulet had voted in the negative—4 nays.

The veto of the Mayor was consequently adhered to.

Mr. Delarum explained his vote in the following words:

I vote against the veto of the Mayor, because, in my opinion, the Mayor has not conformed himself with the provisions of the law, which says—"In case of the Mayor's disapproving a resolution or ordinance passed by the council, the Mayor shall transmit his objections to the council within five days next after receiving said resolution or ordinance."

(Signed,) A. DELASSUS.

A letter from the surveyor was read and, on motion laid on the table subject to the call of the Council.

The same member, in behalf of a Select Committee, submitted the following report, which was, on motion, adopted:

The special committee, appointed to enquire into the cause of the correction inflicted by Mr. Geo. W. Hurby, Principal of the Third Municipality School, on the boy Jackson, have the honor to report:

That the parents of Mr. Bepoux, the uncle of Jackson, as also Mr. Harby, to appear before them; and from the evidence offered on both sides, your committee have come to the conclusion that the behavior of said boy Jackson, towards his principal was highly improper, highly reprehensible and unbecoming a good boy; for which being lectured by Mr. Harby, for past misdemeanors, Jackson did in the most insulting manner sneer at and turn his back on his lecturer.

The evidence also proves that Mr Harby, under the impulse of the moment, struck Jackson with a ladle, and slapped his face. Although your committee feel upon report that the conduct of the boy Jackson was of the most aggravating nature, still they do not approve of the manner in which he was corrected. "Corporal punishment may be used in the hands of a competent teacher, but it should never be resorted to, but in the last extremity, should be taught to know that as an American his person is sacred."

Your committee solemnly repudiate the birch. They *however, are well aware that it becomes almost an im*possibility for a teacher, without resort to severe measures, to command respect from a lad of 14 or 15 years of age, and as there are a great many and even above that age in your Public School, your committee respectfully suggest to this Council the immediate appointment of a competent female teacher, in addition to their other Public Schools, that our female population may enjoy the benefits of a competent teacher, without being exposed to the ill treatment of some of more large within the precincts of the municipality. This is calculated to produce much complaint and annoyance, from the nuisance naturally arising from long-styne, and which, if not deleterious to health, is at least repugnant to comfort.

With much respect,
I am, gentlemen,
Your obedient serv't,
WM. FRERET, Mayor.

The question to adhere to the veto of the Mayor, [illegible] ayes and nays were called for, when it appeared that Messrs. Bureau, Boylan and Barthelemy, had voted in the affirmative, 3 ayes—and that Messrs. De Ferriet, Delarum, Le Blanc and Boulet had voted in the negative—4 nays.

The veto of the Mayor was consequently adhered to.

Mr. Delarum explained his vote in the following words:

I vote against the veto of the Mayor, because, in my opinion, the Mayor has not conformed himself with the provisions of the law, which says—"In case of the Mayor's disapproving a resolution or ordinance passed by the council, the Mayor shall transmit his objections to the council within five days next after receiving said resolution or ordinance."

(Signed,) A. DELASSUS.
