THE PLANTER'S BANNER, AND LOUISIANA AGRICULTURALIST

Franklin, Attakapas, La.

TO THE MERCHANTS OF NEW ORLEANS

THE undersigned, publisher of the above named, duly long impressed with a sense of the advantages which attach to a country Merchant, by publishing their cards in general advertisements in widely circulated country papers, has resolved to contribute his share to their success, through the medium of his paper. The advantage to the merchant engaged in a country trade, is evident, in making known his name and business, the assortment and quality of his goods through a country journal. Houses of good standing, have found it to their interest to patronize the publication, and doubtless would not only benefit themselves, but would confer a decided favor upon country dealers and planters, who, strangers to the customs of large cities, are frequently, by their inexperience, induced, led astray in their purchases and sales, and thus made to incur serious losses.

Should those who contract business in Attakapas, Lafourche and Opelousas, Calcasieu and this vicinity, be assured, that no journal could be selected which has a wider or better circulation in this section, than the Planter's Banner.

Terms of Advertising—For city Merchants, one square (12 lines) for the business evening two squares, $15 for three, $20 and larger advertisements in proportion. Address through the Post Office, or the ship Mercury, Brass and Morgan Exchange Fla.

ROBERT WILSON.
