INSTITUTIONS.

ORLEANS HIGH SCHOOL.
(Lycee d'Orleans.)

THE Directors of this Institution, Messrs. EVERETT WYNDHAM and MERVOYER, having unswervingly acted up to their original plan, as laid down in the Statutes, have succeeded in giving the High School a rank among the best educational establishments in the South.

The aim of the Institution is in a part of the city ever noted for its salubrity. The buildings and premises are admirably adapted to the purposes of a large School.

The system of Education embraces the Grammar and the Literature of the Greek Latin, French and Spanish Languages, Rhetoric, Poetry and Mythology, History, Geography, the use of the Globes, Book keeping, Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, Plane and Spherical Trigonometry, Surveying, Natural Philosophy, Moral Philosophy, Etc.

The various branches of knowledge are taught by the Directors, Messrs EVERETT, WYNDHAM and MERVOYER, and by Assistant Instructors, selected for their eminent skill in the business of Teaching.

The Directors also employ two gentlemen, who, enhance certain branches of Department whenever the pupils are seen in a recitation room under the eye of an Instructor.

The Institution receives Boarders, Half-Boarders, and Day Scholars. The price of Board, (washing included,) and Tuition in all or any of the branches is twenty dollars per month. The price of Half Board is $15 per month.— The price paid by Day Scholars is six, nine, or twelve dollars, according to the knowledge previously acquired.

No interference whatsoever in the internal discipline of the School will be suffered.

The STATUTES, containing all information respecting the Schools, will be laid in the English and the French language at the principal Book stores in the City. m19

REMOVAL.
DAY & BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES, Conducted by Madame Granet.

MADAME GRANET has the honor to inform the Parents of her Pupils and the public that her establishment will be removed on the 15th of November next, from No 220 Bourbon street to No 95, Chartres street, between Bienville and Bienville streets.

This new locality is better adapted for an institution for Young Ladies than the one she is leaving. The apartments are spacious and airy, and well suited for dormitories, like those of

The Yard is extensive, also large and entirely enclosed from direct or close communication.

Madame GRANET has spared no labor or assiduous care in the Education of her Pupils, and the pupils receive the same paternal care, attention and vigilance as her own family.

The branches of instruction are—The English and French Languages, Arithmetic, Geography, Mythology, Astronomy, Literature, Drawing, &c. and are taught by Messrs. Tremlard, Nobes and Lewis.

Particular attentions paid to Music and Singing. The Harp and Piano are taught by Madame Eliza Granet, and assistants by Mr. Bernard.

Pupils can be received at any time. o31—1y-law

FRANKLIN HIGH SCHOOL.

Corner of Royal and Hospital streets, New Orleans.

PARENTS and Guardians are respectfully informed that the classes are now fully organized in the new building, corner of Royal and Hospital streets. It is hoped with some confidence, that the commodious and elegant arrangements for the best accommodation of the pupils, will be found with the approbation of the patrons of the Institution as well as by others who may have youths in their charge.

The aim of the School is to attain and to secure the best results of an extensive and thorough education, in the course of exercises, through which it is our main object to pass in order to reach this goal, by achieving such remarkable cures of the most difficult class of diseases to which the human frame is subject that we ask for Sands' Sarsaparilla, and take no other. Gilbert, of New York.

Who severally declared, That by virtue and in pursuance of an act of the Legislature of this State of Louisiana, approved on the thirteenth day of March, eighteen hundred and thirty seven, they have specially associated themselves, and other persons who may hereafter join or be associated with them, in a company or limited copartnership, to be established in the City of New Orleans, State of Louisiana, under the name and style of the "LOUISIANA DRY DOCK COMPANY."

That the operations of said Company, shall be to receive into a dock, built by them, (now located at Algiers) ships, steamboats and other vessels for examination and repairs.

That the capital stock of said Company, shall be Forty thousand Dollars, divided into shares of one thousand dollars each—the above amount being the estimated value of said dock and its appurtenances, now owned by the herein before mentioned partners, and which said joint company thus constituted, shall continue and exist for the term of fifteen years, commencing the same, on the first day of July, eighteen hundred and forty, and shall then be completed, on the last day of July, eighteen hundred and sixty one, provided the majority of said stockholders or their successors should not wish to dissolve the same sooner.

That the said firm of J. P. Whitney & Co., put into said Company, the sum of Eleven Thousand Dollars, being the price and value of eleven Shares, of One Thousand Dollars each, of said Capital Stock of said Company; the firm of J. W. Stanton & Co. put into said Company, the sum of One Thousand Dollars, being the price and value, of one Share of said Capital Stock; the said firm of J. & R. Geddes put in the sum of One Thousand Dollars, being the price and value of one Share of said Capital Stock, the said firm of Rudolph Schwartze, put into said Company, the sum of Six Thousand Dollars, being the price and value of two Shares of said Capital Stock; the said firm of George Green & Brother, put into said Company, the sum of One Thousand Dollars, being the price and value, of one Share of said Capital Stock, the said Richard Sands Tucker, put in the sum of One Thousand Dollars, being the price and value of one Share of said Capital Stock, the said Edward Ogden and Charles Briggs, put in the sum of One Thousand Dollars, being the price and value of one Share of said Capital Stock, the said Thomas Nugent Carmean and Gordon Plummer, jointly put into said Company, the sum of One Thousand Dollars, being the price and value of one Share of said Capital Stock, Jesse Hart, put in the sum of One Thousand Dollars, being the price and value of one Share of said Capital Stock, the said John F. Gilbert, by and through his attorney in fact, put into said Company, Three Thousand Dollars, being the price and value of three Shares of said Capital Stock, and the said John P. Gilbert, by and through his said attorney in fact, put into said Company, Three Thousand Dollars, being the price and value of three Shares of said Capital Stock, and the whole of which said Stock has been paid in full by the parties aforesaid and is now holden by them in the proportions aforesaid.

That the management of said Company, shall be under the direction of J. P. Whitney & Co. who shall transact all the business and affairs thereof, and said Company shall have the privilege of making by laws for its government, and of altering or amending the same, provided, such alterations and amendments, shall not be inconsistent with this present act.

That said managers shall keep a correct record of all the proceedings, business, transactions, accounts and affairs of said Company, in Dock Books as well as a full account of its receipts and disbursements, and it will be their duty to collect all bills for Docking, and put out moneys that may be justly due, for repairs and the use of said Dock; and they shall also make and exhibit, a full statement of the concerns of said Company, semi annually or oftener, if so required, and shall divide the net profits thereof between the Stockholders at those stated periods. For their services they shall be entitled to receive two and one half per cent. on all monies received and two and one half per cent. on all monies paid out, except the dividends coming and paid to the Stockholders.

The Books of said Company, shall always be open to the inspection of the Stockholders, and the said managers shall keep said Books in such a manner as to furnish all requisite information touching the interests of said Company.

That neither of said Stockholders nor their successors in said Company, shall be liable for any greater loss or damage in the aforesaid Company, than the amount of the Capital Stock holden by them respectively.

That should any portion of the Stock of the aforesaid Company, be transferred during the existence of the limited Copartnership, the said transfer shall be made by an act before a Notary Public, and recorded on the Books of said Company, the new Stockholder binding himself to said transfer, to abide by the act of Charter, and all by laws made in pursuance thereof.

The said Company shall have the right of appearing before all Courts of law and equity, and of suing and being sued.

That in case of inability to act, or death of the managers herein named, the Stockholders shall have the power to appoint others.

That at the expiration of the aforesaid Copartnership, the affairs of the said Company, shall be wound up and liquidated, by a sale of the said Dock and its appurtenances, unless a majority of the Stockholders, (half determine otherwise, when the said majority of Stockholders shall have power to do and perform all acts requisite to the liquidation and settlement of said concern, in any manner the most conducive to justice and the rights of the parties concerned.

And in conclusion, the persons herein named, have in confirmation of the aforesaid stipulations and agreements, ordained and established the foregoing articles of limited Copartnership, for the purposes herein mentioned.

Thus done and passed in my office, at the City of New Orleans, and State of Louisiana, aforesaid on the day, month and year, first above written, in the presence of Charles La Bodiere Kennon, Junior, and Edmond Thomas Mills, competent witnesses, who have signed these presents with the said appearers, and the said Notary, after reading the whole.
