DENTISTRY.

MESSRS. F. BLANCHARD & AUGUST E. LEON, Surgeon Dentists of the Faculty of Paris and New Orleans, have the honor to inform their clients, friends and the public, that they have resumed their offices at No. 41 Royal street, near Conti, Bank of Louisiana and Customhouse, residence of Dr. Leon.

The engagements they are under to and various institutions, and the delicacy of the cure, to which they devote their attention, have absorbed their whole days, in the course of the month. They therefore deemed it expedient to form a Copartnership, so as to be able to keep accounts and to account to their numerous Clients, in order that one or the any be always in hand, ready to receive all persons who may call on them with their confidence. The experience of their works, and the due and prompt discharge of their duties, induce them to hope for a continuance of the patronage of the public. 8

F. M. HANDY, French Surgeon Dentist, from Paris, respectfully informs the Planters and citizens of the coast, that he intends visiting the plantations from Pointe Coupee to Baron Bara, on both sides of the river, and offer their services.

1. It directs the destruction of children, corrects the teeth, and fills up the teeth with a cement; places in regular order the teeth by a complete set, and undertakes curing all vices and defects of the mouth. 1327

DR. PEARSON, Dentist, Office and residence Bacadier street, opposite the State House.

DR. PEARSON invites his friends and all interested to call and examine the improvements in the manufacture of Artificial Teeth, patented by him, the Block Teeth, for which he received the silver medal at the State Fair.

Persons wishing artificial Teeth inserted, can have it done at my establishment with less delay and upon more reasonable terms than any other in the south.

It has ever been my object to place it in the power of the poor, who will not be able to obtain relief, to receive the benefits of dental operations. The great increase of my practice for the last year has compelled me to employ several skillful operators, among whom is an experienced French Dentist, who has served have proved for a term of years at considerable expense. The Citizens may rely upon finding him always ready to wait upon them—his operations will always be submitted to my examination and approval.

Blocks manufactured for Dentists to suit every variety of case, by furnishing correct models. A supply always on hand of the article used by Dentists kept constantly on hand.
