ENGLISH. FRENCH & SPANISH, LANGUAGES.—The undersigned (a) Frenchman by birth recently arrived from the north,) begs leave respectfully to inform the cit-izens of New-Orleans that he has spened in St.

Pierre street, No. 146, between Dauphine and Bourgoyne streets, a DAY and EVENING SCHOOL, for the English, French and Spanish Languages. Every exertion on his part shall be used to merit the approbation of those who may intrust children to his care, and of those pupils who take private lessons from him. His method of teaching the above languages is grounded both upon reason and experience; i is simple, perspicuous and impressive, and enables the learner in a short time to speak and write the said languages with case and propriety. This method has proved a valuable acquisi tion; for pupils, even not acquainted with the grammatical principles of any language, and only gisted with a certain knowledge, can become master of a foreign language without burthening their memory, and taking more time for their studies than that required for their usual lessons under the preceptor. The course of each language is divided into general principles of grammar, so as to continue his studies, if he pleases, without the further halves and quarters in proportion.
