The Telegraph to London.—This proposal by Lieutenant Morrison, R. N. will if effected. of which there appears no reason to doubt, produce an entire revolution in the present system of communication by letter. It will be a pleasant thing to send a message to a friend in London at 10 o'clock in the morning, and receive a reply before noon. To persons interested in the stocks. it will be no small astistaction to have the prices in the funds reported within a few minutes ufter they are hourly published at the Stock Exchange. All public events of importance, divisions in Parliament, foreign news, &c. wall reach Liverpool earlier than they now do a village only 10 miles out of Landon. We understand it is expected that the whole may be ready for operation early next summer .- Liverpool Cour.
