THE BEE.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
JEROME BAYOU, DE LALLE & CO.
NEW-ORLEANS.
THURSDAY, (MORNING,) JANUARY 20, 1831.

Louisville papers of the 10th and 11th inst. were received by the mail which arrived last night. All the communications, except one, are omitted for want of room. It would take place during the present session.

We have copied into this day's paper, an interesting sketch of some of the public functionaries, made by the Editor of The Natchez Courier, during a late visit to that city. The information is no more than every intelligent citizen would be glad to receive; and the sketch is so much to the point, that we feel assured every person who reads it, will be pleased with it. Natchez is a place which has justly attracted much attention, for the rapidity with which it has risen to importance, and the liberality and intelligence of its inhabitants. Its commercial advantages are unrivalled, and its citizens are evidently occupied every moment in which they can spare from their own private business, to the advancement of the public interests. Such a town must flourish, and we hope that the day is not far distant when it will be the seat of government of the State. Its central situation, and the facility of communication with it from every part of the State, by land and water, would render it the most convenient place for the meeting of the Legislature. Besides, the people of Natchez are entitled to the compliment, and we hope they will receive it.

The following gentlemen have been nominated by the Governor, with the consent of the Senate, to the offices set against their names, in the Territory of Florida:

Levi Collins, Secretary of the Territory.
B. Duvall, Judge of the Superior Court.
J. Fromentin, Do. Do.
A. Walker, Do. Do.
Benj. Story, Attorney for the United States.
Jas. Gadsden, Collector of the Customs for the district of St. Augustine.
Edward Wanton, Do. Do. for the district of Pensacola.
Mitchell Anderson, Surveyor and Inspector of the Customs for the district of St. Augustine.
Samuel Adams, Do. Do. for the district of Pensacola.
L. Allard, Register of the Land Office at St. Augustine.
Henry Vercel, Do. Do. at Pensacola.

At the present moment, when by repeated fires our ordinary precincts are deprived of the Northern mail, we are deprived of the Eastern mail, and of the Southern mail, by the non-arrival of the steamboat Louisiana, from Louisville, and the non-departure of the steamboat Pike, from this city. Under these circumstances, we have been compelled to publish a paper much smaller than usual, and to omit many articles of interest. We shall be obliged to do so much more frequently, if the present state of the navigation of the Mississippi continues. We hope, however, that the Louisiana will arrive in a few days, and relieve us from the difficulty under which we labor.

We shall be obliged to the Editors of the Louisville Public Advertiser, and of the Louisville Focus, for the very flattering notices which they have taken of our paper. We reciprocate the kindness, and wish them success.

Of the State of Louisiana Commencing Monday, December 6, 1830.
