Day and Boarding School for Young Ladies.

Founded in 1829, by Madame Lafitte, and conducted since 1840, by MADAME DESRAVAUX; Burgundy street, between Customhouse and Bienville streets, New Orleans.

MM. and MDE. DESRAVAUX, formerly in Rampart street, having removed their institution upwards of a year ago, to more extensive accommodations, assure parents and guardians of youth, that their new building in Burgundy st. has met their expectations, and supplies one great and almost indispensable requisite, namely, ample accommodations, adapted to the object they had in view. It is scarcely necessary to state, that the building which they occupy at present, will be made to undergo improvements for the comfort and convenience of domestic life, and for educational purposes. The apartments are spacious, well lighted, and properly furnished. The large and well shaded garden in the rear of the building, purchased for the accommodation of the pupils, is considered to be attended with many advantages, as regards health, exercise and amusement—in short, every arrangement has been made, and every exertion used, to increase the facilities of education; to guard the health of the pupils, and to procure their comfort and happiness.

The Institution provides thorough and substantial instruction in every stage and department of education. It possesses great facilities for the acquirement of the French language, and for the cultivation of Music, and it unhesitatingly asserts, that no efforts will be wanting to sustain the reputation which the School has already acquired in these departments.

DR. MACAULAY, who has taught in the Institution for upwards of five years, and who divides his time equally between the Institution and Mrs. Macaulay's, takes the entire charge of the department of English Literature, including Natural and Moral Philosophy, and Rhetorical Exercises, and also the recitations and public instruction at their office, located near corner of Natchez and Camp streets, on FIRE, MARINE and LIFE RISKS, and also upon the Lives of white persons and slaves.

☞ This Company is established on the Mutual plan, entirely free from all Stock interest, the operating with it becomes interested in its success; and its profits are divided among its customers, payable in cash or scrip, at pleasure.

New Orleans, Nov. 1, 1849. n5 1y

G. BOYER'S INSTITUTION,

No. 148 Conti street, between Dauphine and Burgundy.

MR. G. BOYER, founder of this establishment, begs to inform his friends and the public, of an opportunity to make a new appeal to the confidence of parents.

The institution is conducted in a large mansion occupying a fine central position, being well ventilated, and in other respects perfectly salubrious.

The course of studies now in operation at the establishment, extends over all the branches of learning, which are necessary to a useful, polite and finished education, from primary instruction, to the more abstruse subjects which are especially the delight of young men.

The elementary studies are attended to with more than ordinary care, forming the decisive influence which they exercise over the other branches of instruction.

Discipline, which must not be separated from assiduous study, nor from a good education, is conducted with solicitude. It is calculated according to the age and character of each pupil, and intended to give them an accurate idea of duty and good behavior.

The English, French, Spanish, German and Latin languages, Mathematics, History, Geography, Elements of Natural Philosophy, and Philosophical Science.
