OFFICIAL.

BY AUTHORITY.

[No. 326.]

AN ACT

[illegible] shall not be entitled to act as [illegible] H. B. Favre the privilege of keeping a Ferry across the Mississippi at the town of Baton Rouge, approved March the twenty eighth, eighteen hundred and forty.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly convened, That the interest in act entitled, an act granting to H. B. Favre the privilege of keeping a Ferry across the Mississippi, now at the town of Baton Rouge, approved March twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and forty, be, and the same is hereby so much thereof amended to read as follows, an act granting to H. B. Favre, his heirs and assigns, the privilege of keeping a ferry across the Mississippi at the town of Baton Rouge.

Sec. 2. Be it further enacted, &c. That section 1st of the second act be hereby amended and re-enacted to read as follows. That from and after the month of May eighteen hundred and forty, and the term of fifteen years from that day, H. B. Favre, his heirs and assigns, shall have and enjoy the exclusive privilege of keeping a ferry across the Mississippi river, between the town of Baton Rouge and the parish of West Baton Rouge, upon the terms and conditions as follows. That H. B. Favre, his heirs and assigns, for the privilege of keeping a ferry shall pay annually, for fifteen years, from the date of the first day of March, eighteen hundred and [illegible] dollars, half to the corporation of the town of Baton Rouge, and the other half to the parish of West Baton Rouge.

Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, &c. That the second section of the act hereby amended and re-enacted as follows. That the rates of ferriage and tolls shall be as follows: [illegible] shall have till the first day of [illegible] hundred and forty, to place a good [illegible] and sufficient ferry boat, which shall be kept in the [illegible] and ready for use at all times, at [illegible] shall be [illegible] that if any person shall [illegible] the ferry boat, or shall be [illegible] time than half an hour for said ferry, the said [illegible] shall be liable to forfeit any [illegible] the [illegible] shall be [illegible]