G. MOYERS INSTITUTION.

No. 146 Conti Street, between Dauphine and Burgundy.

MR. G. MOYER, founder of this establishment, the eldest in New Orleans, avails himself of this opportunity to make a new appeal to the confidence of parents. This institution is conducted in a large mansion, occupying a fine central position, being well ventilated, and in other respects perfectly salubrious. The range of studies which engage the attention of the pupils, are those which are the most useful, and those which are necessary to a useful, polite and finished education; from primary instruction, to the more advanced subjects which are especially the province of a collegiate course. The elementary studies are carried on with more care, considering the decisive influence which they exercise over the other branches of instruction. Discipline, which is the soul of every educational establishment, our from a good education, is conducted with scrupulous care, the moral education is the aim and object of the students, and intended to give them an accomplished and finished education.
