EDUCATION.

BOURDIER'S INSTITUTION FOR BOTH SEXES.

243 St. Louis st, between Dauphine & Burgundy.

MR. & MME. BOURDIER, beg to return their most grateful acknowledgments to those parents who have so liberally patronized their Institution; they beg to assure them, that neither pains nor expense shall be spared to render it a continuance of the favor so liberally extended to them. The rage for cheap and superficial education, which has so long prevailed in this country, is rapidly giving place to a more sound and rational system, which aims at a thorough knowledge of the more abstruse subjects which are capable of the greatest mental improvement, and which, considering the decisive influence which their acquisition exert on the other branches of instruction, Discipline, which must not be separated from acquirement, has been a good education, is mentioned with the latitude. It is conducted according to the age and character of each pupil, and instructions be given in an accurate idea of duty and good behavior.

—BRANCHES OF INSTRUCTION—

The English, French, Spanish, German, Latin languages; Mathematics, History, Geography, Elements of Natural Philosophy, and Polite Literature.

JACKSON INSTITUTE.

THE number of Students in this Institute greatly increasing every day, the Directors have thought it proper to modify the plan of instruction, for the purpose, if possible, of rendering them more complete.

The study of the English Language will be the constant care of scrupulous and able Professors who have taught in the best Institutions of this city. The hours of study will be equally divided between English and French. The morning, from 8 o'clock to 12½, will be devoted to English; the balance of the day to French.

The students will be placed under the able care of Mr. Hizar, an advantageously known to one of the best Institutions of this city, and in the public schools; the Fifth Division will be specially charged with the care of the studies of young ladies.

Instruction in French will be continued, as heretofore, under the direction of Messrs. Jaffre and Lafosse.

Mr. S. Hanson remains charged with the exercise of drawing with the pen, colography and the elementary classes.

Sewing, embroidery, etc., will be taught by a person expert in the art.

Music and singing will be under the charge of an intelligent and zealous master.

General course of Grammar and Literature.

A general course of Grammar and of literature will commence on the 3d January, (the time when the students resume their studies) and will be conducted by Mr. Selzney, whose ability, experience and learning need no commentary. The assistance of Mr. Selzney is a fortunate acquisition to the students, to parents, and to the Directors of the Institute.

The Directors feel happy to take this occasion to return their thanks to parents for the kind patronage with which they have honored it; scarcely six months have elapsed since it was opened, and it already has one hundred and three scholars. Encouraged by such brilliant success, the Directors pledge themselves at all sacrifices to do their utmost to merit the confidence reposed in, and so gratifying to them. dec19
