ON Saturday the 21st January next, at 12 o'clock at the Exchange Coffee House will be sold, if not previously disposed of at private sale:

A VALUABLE PLANTATION, with all the Buildings and improvements, Sugar, Farming Utensils & Slaves thereon. Said plantation is situated at the English Turn about six leagues below New Orleans, on the same side of the river, and bounded on one side by the plantation of Jos. Morgan, and on the other, by that of Mr. A. Bonnes, and measures 24 arpents front on the Mississippi by 40 arpents in depth, narrowing in the rear to 6 arpents, containing in all 480 superficial arpents. 350 of which are first rate sugar land, and 160 are under cultivation. The residue is composed of good woodland except about 15 arpents of high prairie.

This plantation is surrounded on three sides by a canal and large ditches through the cane, and are in the middle of the ground that inundation during the several gales of August last. There is enough of plant cane saved, it is believed to plant 100 arpents. The improvements consist of a good comfortable Dwelling House, a sugar house of 55 feet square, a good Cane Mill, a suit of Kettles in good order, a brick Distillery, of a most improved construction, capable of distilling 40,000 gallons of Rum annually; there also are

20 Prime acclimated Slaves
18 American Horses
6 Yoke of Creole Oxen
7 Cows and a number of young Cattle, and Sheep, farming utensils &c. The land is well drained, and with an addition of 16 more hands the plantation would, it is believed, readily yield 200 hhds of sugar the next season, the cane in front is small, and its situation renders it less liable to be affected by frost than most other places. Persons wishing to purchase at private sale will please apply to N. Morse Esq. or to the above named Auctioneer, who will give every information necessary as to prices, terms, &c.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

THE undersigned informs the public that he will attend to the cure of affections of the eye, such as may require his services may employ him with confidence. He lives in the same street as formerly. He ventures to assert that those who may employ him will be as satisfied as those whom he has cured and cured.

J. RAPALLO.

New-Orleans, January 9th 1832.

I certify that Mr. John Rapallo cured the eyes of one of my negroes, aged 28 years, whose eyes were dangerously afflicted by the result of smallpox. WM. M'DONOUGH.

Miss Louise Ardouin declares that from her childhood, her eyes were so weak that she was unable to read or write distinctly; and that since she has been attended to by Mr. Rapallo, she has entirely recovered her eyesight.

She further certifies that her servant, who, from the effects of the last eclipse was almost blind, was cured in four days.

dec 13 LOUISE ARDOUIN.

DR. J. FONTANGES Surgeon Dentist, having returned in this city has the honor of informing the inhabitants of this place and of its neighborhood that he now resides in St Ann street, No. 64 next door to Mr. Pinguet & Lacroix. A residence of two years in this city emboldens him to think himself too well known by the inhabitants of this city to lengthen out this notice with useless recommendations. He will be found daily at home from 7 to 8 o'clock, in the evening where (as formerly) he will exert his best efforts, to merit the confidence they may be pleased to confer on him.
