EDUCATION.

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL
FOR YOUNG LADIES,
DIRECTED BY MADAME
MADAME CHARPAUX,
At the corner of Rogers and Chaffours streets.
THIS INSTITUTION, whose existence dates some six years back, has grown with a success that proves, beyond all cavil, the capacity of those who have charge of it.
Intended to meet the confidence of parents, Mad. Charpaux will spare no pains to make her seminary equal to the best institutions of the kind in New Orleans, and in order to do this, she has employed the ablest teachers.
Madame Charpaux has purchased a large and airy edifice on one of the highest places of ground in the city, and the better to ensure the health of her pupils, she has had spacious and elevated galleries built on purpose for school and sleeping rooms, through which there will be a constant circulation of air from many windows.
Great attention will be paid to the improvement of scholars in the English language. For this purpose, American ladies of acknowledged capacity, as teachers, will constantly reside in the Seminary.
The English, French and Spanish languages, geography, arithmetic, and in short all the branches of a polite education, will be taught in the Seminary.
As religion should be the foundation of all good education, it will be carefully attended to by Madam Charpaux, who intends to devote a part of her evening catechisms all her young ladies who may have their first communion to make.
Music will be taught by a most desirable branch of the education of young ladies, Mr. Charpaux, from the Conservatory of Paris, and an artist of the Orleans Theatre, will devote all his time to this department. All the Subjects, besides their number taught, will pass every Saturday under the eyes of the professor. The study of the notes will precede the portfoo-masses, when Mr. Charpaux will put the pupils through in the study of the regular keys and notes, and this will be adapted with no extra charge.
In order to kindle emulation among the pupils, and improve their feelings, a monthly meeting of the last Saturday in every month there will be a musical examination and a distribution of rewards.
Madam Charpaux, in order to complete the education of her scholars, has opened a class where will be taught all the useful and ornamental branches of needle work.

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL,
FOR YOUNG LADIES,
MADAME PARENT,
Corner of Hospital and De Hautes streets.
THIS Institution occupies one of the best locations in the city with respect to health and many other important advantages. The building is magnificent, the apartments are vast and well ventilated, and are particularly well adapted for classes.
There are four fine dormitories with dressing cabinets; also spacious galleries all through the house; a splendid terrace commanding a most beautiful view of the city as far as the lake.
The best advantages are offered to parents, as to the moral and intellectual cultivation of the minds of their daughters.
An investigation of the patents, specifications and drawings (to be had of the subscribers) will prove that this furnace to be constructed upon strictly scientific principles, entirely distinct from those of any other patented furnace, and that the application of the furnace in operation will convince the most incredulous of the practical application of the principles laid down in the patents, as well as of the economy, simplicity of construction and management, economy and durability. Some of these principles have taken of three years, without any repairs, there being nothing but fire brick exposed to the fire.
The undersigned are now prepared to contract with parties for supplying and putting these furnaces in operation, and the sale of sugar planters an investigation of their certified testimonials.
