EDUCATION.

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES, UNDER THE DIRECTION OF MADAME PARENT.

Corner of Hampden and De Hautes streets.

THE Department of Instruction is in the hands of experienced teachers, and the Boarding Department is particularly well adapted for Homes.

There are four fine dormitories with drawing rooms, also parlors and galleries all through the house; a spacious yard, with extensive garden, and the finest air in the city so far as the ladies.

The best advantages are offered to pupils, as to the moral and intellectual cultivation of the hearts of their daughters.

Madame Parent is always present with her pupils; she teaches during the hours of class, and during recess and the diplomatic dinner. There is the ample number of the best professors employed, besides ladies residing in the house.

Every branch of a solid and refined education is taught in both languages; all accomplishments, such as Drawing, Painting, Dancing and Music.

The Medical department is conducted by the most competent and acknowledged talents in the city.

It could be more fitting to call the attention of the special attention that is paid to the Hygiene, I believe Madame Parent is the only lady who has demonstrated that she can give to the public in time the French young ladies who have been educated by her speak it in perfect accent.

Mr. Burie, the celebrated musician, will superintend the vocal department.

For terms, particulars, and testimonials, where prospectuses can be obtained.

YOUNG LADIES residing at a distance in the different Districts, will be prepared grants to and from their institution. 620
