

MAYOR. COL. PHILIP FELIX DE ARMAS

A compilation of... We have conveyed with an intelligent gentleman...

The northern mail came in at half past four, yesterday, and brings Philadelphia papers...

By the ship Tally-ho, at Norfolk, London and Liverpool dates, of the 4th and 5th January...

Intelligence from Jamaica, up to the 19th of January, has been received at Savannah...

Upon the representations of our government, to that of Great Britain, on the subject of an act of the legislature of Jamaica...

From the Norfolk Herald. FIVE DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE. The ship Tally-Ho, captain Fisher, 36 days from Liverpool...

The papers are unusual barren. The reports from the cholera district, as will be seen below, show no increase or extension of the disease...

There is much speculation on the subject of the delay on the part of the Emperor of Russia to ratify the treaty between Holland and Belgium...

The accredited rumor, that a serious misunderstanding exists between this country and France respecting the demotion of the fortresses on the British frontier...

London, February 23. We have heard that a Russian courier arrived yesterday, via the Hague, with an announcement of the Emperor of Russia having refused to ratify the treaty...

On the subject of the recent failure of the mails, the Frederickburg Advertiser, of the 10th inst., says: "The confusion of the mails, growing out of the intervention caused by the Emperor of Russia, is not a new phenomenon..."

The Hon. Mr. Drake. A horse dealer is a double-edged sword, for he dethrones the double-edged sword of the punter. When he gives his word, it is his word, however it may be broken...

Paris, January 31. The Tribune of to-day, contains the following most extraordinary paragraph, in large letters, and in a leading part of the paper: "Reports of an extraordinary nature have been in circulation during the last two or three days..."

Baltimore, Feb. 28. The number of Belgian troops ordered to Luxemburg is about 5000 men—very rigorous orders have been given against the rebels who may be taken with arms in their hands.

Jamaica.—The brig Enterprise, Capt. at Savannah, sailed from Montego Bay on the 19th January. Capt. Salter states that numbers of slaves had sought refuge in the mountains, and a second Maroon war would probably be the consequence...

On Saturday last the ship Garland Grove arrived bringing passengers the Rev. Mr. Druehl, Baptist Minister, against whom strong evidence had been lodged with the military authorities, to the effect that he had been instrumental in disseminating among the slaves opinions that tended to create the present rebellion...

Congressional.—In the senate, Monday 19th Mr. Charles Sumner, from the joint committee on the subject of the commemoration of the centennial birth of George Washington, made a report, accompanied by a joint resolution for carrying into effect the resolution of congress, passed in 1799, for removing to the capitol the remains of Washington.

London, Jan. 4. The accredited rumor, that a serious misunderstanding exists between this country and France respecting the demotion of the fortresses on the British frontier, has been addressed a diplomatic note to the different courts of Europe, expressing his determination to support his friend and ally, Don Miguel, the document has given rise to an apprehension that some others of the continental nations may follow his example; in which case England perhaps would be involved in hostilities.
