Office Lower Steam Cotton Press-Co.
New-Orleans, 27th Feb. 1832.

IN addition to the Cotton Presses and stores already advertised as being completed, the wharf of the Company in front of the Press is now sufficiently advanced, for Steamboats, Flatboats and Vessels to lay alongside. No wharfage will be charged to Steam Vessels or Boats landing produce to be stored in the Press, and no drayage will be charged on produce received or shipped in front of the Press.

Flatboats and Keelboats loaded with cotton or tobacco will be permitted to lay alongside the Levee, which we will be permitted to lay alongside the Levee, which in the encasement which forms a commodious harbor, and sufficient time will be allowed them to discharge without charge of wharfage.

Planters of cotton and tobacco will find it greatly to their interest to send their produce direct to the Press, as (independent of the saving in drayage) their produce being placed in stores immediately it is taken from the boat, will not be liable to damage from bad weather or load transportation, and the stores being extensive and commodious, built round a spacious yard, it can be sampled and sold with greater satisfaction and facility than in smaller establishments. Insurance can also be effected lower than hitherto charged, from the greater security in the manner of building and situation of the stores of the Press.

Every facility will be afforded by the Company's agent, Mr. Hea, who resides on the premises, the charges for storage, compressing &c. will be moderate and the establishment generally will be conducted on the most accommodating and liberal principles.

By order of the Directors.

A. W. HUDSON, Secretary.

GUILLAUME has the honor of informing the inhabitants of New-Orleans, that from Sunday the 11th March, he will in person superintend his establishment, which will be published in all the papers of this city.

He hopes that public indulgences will be extended towards him; that more so, as the disappointments of last year were entirely beyond his control—the house not having been finished before the orchestra was over. He hopes that public patronage will reanimate him to fulfil his duties. He hopes that those whom he had the honor to visit last March, will excuse him for a new compliance with his promise; the house then being finished for reception, refitting with the additional wheels they render the establishment both agreeable and safe.
