

GOVERNOR J. B. DAWSON MAYOR Col. PEIRE RECORDER FELIX DE ARMAS

The northern mail brought us New York papers of the 7th; Baltimore of the 8th; Washington of the 7th, and Charleston of the 14th instant. We notice no foreign papers at the Atlantic ports, and the Washington papers do not offer a single word worth the trouble of reproduction.

A batch of actors—Cooper and Herbert, Raymond and Holland are drawing alternate tears, and smiles from the mobile citizens at Mobile. Our confederate of the Mobile riot says of the latter, that he performed fit character, one of which is being a villain. He says, "I do not care for the fair ladies of Mobile, never indulge in it. They ought certainly not to reveal in that grotesque mimicry, which is the privilege of lord-mayors, but the routine of scenes of chastity which belongs to them, and to no other reason why they should not—if not spill their east laugh at Holland's droletries."

By the new steamer Ohio, Capt. Paul, in three days and sixteen hours from Louisville, we have received five papers from that city to the 10th; they are barren of news.
