PLUFFED AND PUBLISHED PARTY BY WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 16, 1832.

J E DAWSON. Owing to the number of advertisements in this day's poper, we are unable to give the usual quantity of reading matter Yesterday's mail furnishes New-York dates to the 1st Instant. They furnish nothing of interest in the domestic. coartment. The London packet ship Columbia arrived that port, brings London dates to the Blst Marchi-the nost interesting articles will be found below, Cupt. FABRE of the barque Amiable Marie, from Borsaux, whence she sailed on the 28th March, confirms the statement of capt. Myers, relative to the departure of two hundred vessels from that port loaded with wines and brandies. In consequence of the numerous shipments of these articles, their prices had increased considerably. There was only one vessel up for this port, she was not to sail before some months.

LATE FROM VEHA CRUZ.

We learn by the schooner TAMPTOO, arrived last vening from Vera Cruz, that on the 6th instant, the government troops commenced the bumbardment of the city, and that the bombs, falling in every direction, had killed a woman, and wounded three other persons. next day, when it ceased.

A company of dragoons, to the number of two hunired men. find sallied out and attacked an advanced post of the government troops, and succeeded in driing them off.

We are also informed that the cause of Santa Anna isduily becoming more certain of final success, and that the resistance made by the government serves only to angment his strength and concentrate his forces. From the N. Y. Courier and Inquirer of May 1. STILL LATER FROM EUROPE.

At an early hour this morning, we reogived our filed papers brought by the London packet ship. Columbis, Capt. Delana. She was boarded last night by our news schooner Eclipse. The Courier of the 31st contains the following in relation to DELGIUM.

Although the ratification of the Belgian treaty, by he emperor of Austria, has been received by baron Wessenberg, the Austrian Charge d'Affaires, it will not this day be given in to the conference, as was intended; the exchange having been made conditional, upon the giving in the rapheation of Prussis, for which Baron Bulow has not yet renaived the necessary autharity. Troops were in fact daily despatched overland to Syria in aid of the packs of Acre, and the naval preparations, though not yet completed, were still going on with unobated activity, VIENNA. March 17.

According to despatches from Constantinople, the English ambassador, Mr. Carning, has had several conterences with the Reis-Effendi, at which the Russing ambassador and the French charge des affaires were present. The last (on the 23d of February) continued five hours. This proves the fallacy of th reports of the Russian ambassador not feeling himself authorised to support the proposals of England. These have in view to fix the line of demoration: in the com commence from the mouth of the river Ellads, Gulf of Zeituny, following the river, and the ridge of mountains of Ceta to the river Arta, which it is to pursue to its mouth. It is stated that this proposition, attended with an offer of pecuniary indemnity; has no been refused by the Reis Effendi, and that there is every reason to believe that the negociation will be successiui. Greece, then, on the east, will retain the boundary fixed by the Duke of Wellington, but will gain on the west the extended line traced by the protocol of March 22, 1829.

CHEROKEES .- A letter from general Newman, da ted at Washington on the 14th just, is published in the Augusta Chroniele, in which it is stated, that the Che rokee delegation, now at the sent of government, "have at last consented to recommend to their people to make a freaty with the government, upon the general basis, that they shall acquire a potent for land over the M's sissippi, and, at a proper time, be allowed a delegate in congress.
