FRIDAY EVENING, August 10, 1860.

In Tobacco business has been restricted, for prompt supplies and enhanced prominence on the part of holders, a portion of the stock has been withdrawn from the market. The receipts of Sugar have been very light, and prices have tended still more in favor of sellers. In Flour and Grain there has been a more active demand, and prices have further declined. In Pork our notice as opening, and other descriptions of Provisions have been very firm. Freights and Exchange continue inactive, with a nominal alteration in the rates.

The latest accounts from Europe were by the Canada and Europa, embarking Liverpool dates to the 28th ult. The cotton sales for Comes were stated at 44,000 bales, of which Speculation and Exportation took 10,000 bales, the market being dull at previous quotations, and for Fair Orleans 5-16d, and for Middling Orleans 7-16d. The stock in port was reckoned at 1,362,000 bales, including 1041 American; leaving the week's sales about 3000 bales, the market closing dull at 3-16 frs. for New Orleans Tree Orleans, with a stock of 300,000 bales.
