sizes, and will be sold without reserve to the higher bidders.

The many advantages thus offered to a discriminat ing public needs no minute discription, and judicious speculators will not fail to profit by the purchase of ots in this elevated and healthy part of the city, ren ered so convenient by its connexion with the Rail cond which runs through the centre. This saubourg is laid off to correspond with the streets of faulou g Harigny, and with those of Milne-burgh, and it is evilent from the enterprising character of the inhabitants of the lower part of the city, which is duty developing itself with increased vigor, that the time is not far distant when the whole will be in a state of improvement, and will form the most beautiful part of New-Orleans. The wide ay-nues formed by the Rail Road, and pa-callel streets permitting free eleculation of six from the Lake to the River, and affording an mobstructed view, certainly indicate it the most healthy part, as well as the most beautiful. The compactly built and crowded streets of the business parts of the city airesly renders them unfit for residences during the warn enson, and as this inconvenience must increase with situations must be taken for dwellings, as well for health as comfort. Care will stop at the Darranuil fanhourg at all times to put down and take up passengers, and it is the intention of the Rail road company o lay fron pipes from the river to the lake to furnish th ntermediate inhabitants with pure and wholesome waersta small (Z, wuse,
