The many advantages thus offered to a discrimina

This faubourg tail off to correspond with the streets of faubourg farigny, and with those of Milnesburgh, and it is evident from the enterprising character of the inhabitua of the lower part of the city, which is daily developing thelf with increased vigor, that the time is not far di ant when the whole will be in a state of improvement and will form the most beautiful past of New-Orleans The wide avenues formed by the Rail Road, and paallel streets permitting free risculation of air from the Lake to the River, and affording an unobstructed view, rertainly indicate it the most healthy part, as well as the most beautiful. The compactly bailt and crowded streets of the business parts of the city alrealy renders them unfit for residences during the warm season, and as this inconvenience must increase with the growth of the population, more siry and salubricus mations must be taken for dwellings, as well for ealth as comfort. Cars will stop at the Darcanul faubourg at all times to put down and take up passen gers, and it is the intention of the Rail road company ntermediate inhabitanta with pure and wholesome waer at a amail expense.

For summer residences and pleasure gardens, this Captains of ressels and steamboats, and others, will speed with which it can be reached by means of the formshed with French biscuits, pilot and many Rail-road, render it more convenient to the square of the city than many of the apper faubourgs.
