IN THE SENATE.

The Senate disposed of sundry resolutions; among others, a resolution was introduced adjourn-Assembly sine die on Saturday next. The Senator from Iberville, Mr. Hiriart, propose as an amendment to this resolution, the following Resolved, that the members of the Senate by allowed no milage compensation in this extraordinary session.

The amendment was opposed by Mr Burtho. The member of the 2d distrirt said that his opinion on the subject could not be suspected, in as much as he is one of the disinterested—one who receives no compensation for services rendered. That a motive of delicacy might prevent other members from expressing their opinion; but that he would take upon himself to oppose a resolution which could not be opposed by members concerned.

The senator from St. Tamany thought that all services should be rewarded; that he valued his sufficiently high to have them remunerated. In divers circumstances the member had voted against the allowance of a per diem or compensation to members who had not attended; but the duty imposed upon them was duly performed, and he and every other member would expect the compensation allowed by law.

The member of Acadia opposed a provision of the constitution to the amendment offered by the mem-ber from Iberville. He contended that the members having waited on the call of the executive with zeal and p.omptitude, were entitled to the comper sation guaranteed by the constitution. They had not met of their own accord; but had convened upon the mandate of the Governor to fulfil important public duties, and had a right to the public re-muneration attached to their performance.

The member from Feliciana would go; art and hand with his colleague from Iberville, did his resolution embrace a general reduction of the salaries of public functionaries: for that he thought that the scale of public expenditures was not properly graduated; but in the present insulated circumstance he did not deem himself justifiable in supporting the resolution, and would consequently vote against it.

Fanis, September 16.

In the sitting of the Chamber of Deputies of the 16th, the Minister for Foreign Affairs announced officially the capitulation of Warsaw. He stated that there were but 24,000 Polish troops in Warsaw at the time of the surrender; that a corps of 36,000 men were in Podlachia. He ended his state ment by informing the Chamber that the most per fect order obtained in Warsaw (Tokens of surprise and indignation in several parts of the Hall.

Tir Cable Case.—This case which has excited considerable interest among the commer Governor's message touching the cial community of Boston, was decided in the U. S. District Court of Massachusetts, in favo of the claimant. The opinion of Judge Davis appears in the Commercial Gazette, from which e gather the following particulars .- The brig scow, "arrived at Boston on the 5th of Sept last, from Cronstadt, having, in her outward veyage, first proceeded to Mannacas, in the Island of Cuba, the said John Norris, one of the mittee of the members on the part of the Senate and — in behalf of the House.

The resolution on the election of a Senator, being the order of the day, was taken up, and adopted after an alteration of the phraseology, and sent to the Senate informed the House, that they had joint owners, being the master; that, on the pasas well as from the age, long continued use and decay of that cable, it became necessary to procure a substitute, which was, accordingly, done by the master of the brig, at Cronstadt, for the nacessary use of the vessel, and for no other purpose; that, in like manner, a substitute was there provided for the hawser belonging to the brig-the old hawser, it is averged, being steaned, weak, and unfit for use; that said new stream tellers. Numerous witnesses were examined to prove the above facts. It was argued on the part of the government, that, in the true construction of the statute, those articles would come under the denomination of sea stores. This would appear to me, said Judge Davis, a steamed interpretation of the statute, and the uniform practice from the earliest date of our maritime and fi-cal regulations, gives no support to such a construction, "Vessel and cubin stores," is the expression in the 23d section of the Colection

The Judge thus doncludes-"I have no hesitation in cecreeing that they (the cables) be restored to the claimants." On reviewing the course pursued by the Collector of Boston, and on the question whether the certificate of reason able cause shall be entered for the Collector' protection who may be otherwise exposed to a prosecution for an exercise of official duty, Judge Davis has entered into a minute examina tion of the seizure, and concluders in the follow ing words.

fact is now established, beyond controversy, (says the American Advocate) that the manu facturers of Great Britain have been ruining themselves in a competition with our domestic industry; and that, if our iron establishments were destroyed, they would be enabled to impose what prices they pleased upon us, as their own prices must now, contrary to their inclinations, advance.
