

NEW ORLEANS, TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 22, 1831.

We have by yesterday's mail, New-York papers of the 7th, Philadelphia of the 8th, and Charleston of the 12th.

LATE FROM MEXICO.

By the late arrivals from Havana and Tampico, we have received files of papers from both places. The dates from the latter are up to the 26th of October.

The General Congress, was, at the latest date, discussing a law-project, providing for the establishment of a commercial tribunal; the bill was taken up with considerable zeal and activity.

The town of Antayac, situated on the Southern side of Mexico, has been the scene of somewhat serious disorders. On the 9th of October a band of robbers, came down upon the inhabitants and took possession of the city.

Many nations have in town, the mastery over the sea; from the days of Tyre, we see a succession of maritime power passing through different nations, until it finally settled in England.

It appears that Mr. Eckford, the New-York ship-builder, had arrived at the Dutchessland, in the Corvette United States, and that he had proceeded to Paris.

INTERESTING TO COTTON PLANTERS. A friend, now on his way to the Eastern States, has sent us, by the ship "Flore", from Boston, a portion of what is called "Puylla Cotton."

It is a variety of the seed, taken from the latter, which may be examined at our Office. It is said to grow spontaneously in the coast of Peru, and that a very quantity has been raised at one cent per pound.

Customs were removed, and a good business may be done in the article. It is to be seen that some of the machinery at present in use in the neighborhood of Boston was made in England.

The celebrated correspondent of the London Morning Chronicle, manifests his indignation, with a success equally worthy of Junius. It has been conjectured that John Henry is the author.

There is too much talent displayed in these celebrated letters, to doubt that Mr. Henry is not the author. We have been informed by gentlemen from England, that the Editors of the Morning Chronicle are themselves ignorant of the correspondent's name.

The troops which entered the city on the 8th, consist of the Imperial Foot and Horse Guards; viz: the Plovassens Roc, Moscow, Jager and Cosack regiments.

The Warsaw Courier of yesterday says, that a cessation of hostilities will continue for a fortnight, until the decision of His Majesty had been from St. Petersburg.

The report that disturbances had occurred the day before yesterday at Modlin and the night before, is not confirmed. Many citizens who left Warsaw with the army, are now at Zyrardow.

On the night of the 10th, between 11 and 12 o'clock, the criminals imprisoned in the Inquisition House called the Powder House, attempted to escape.

General Krakiwicz is still in Warsaw. There is no positive information of the present residence of General Skrzynecki; the probability is, that he is in Galicia, in the neighborhood of Cracow.

Description of Amsterdam.—Whoever is desirous of seeing human ingenuity and human industry most successfully and most extensively exerted, for the purpose of counteracting the injurious effect of one of the most powerful and destructive elements, and by means the most simple, must visit Holland, and more particularly Amsterdam.
