" THE UNION-IT MUST BE PRESERVED." MONDAY MORNING, JAN. 21, 1833.

FOR GOVERNOR: J. B. DAWSON.

Fire. A fire broke out last night about 9 o'clock, at the Magazine and Delore streets, on the premises ocextent, and a large quantity of Cotton were entirely consur med. By the rapid progress of the flames, which enveloped the whole block in a short space of time, and taking into sage. oneideration the calmness of the evening, we are induced to believe the above to have been the work of an incendiary.

The papers furnished by yesterday's Northern Mail, reve anticipated be yound Charleston, by those furnished on Saturday. Our date from Charleston is to the 12th it.st. but contains nothing important. By an arrival at Havanna from Cadis, which port she left on the 4th December, we have obtained information of the capture of the Gitadel of Antwerp, by the French troops.

· IMPORTANT.

A gentleman arrived here from Havana, which place he left on the 13th inst. reports that on his departure, Mr Guillemin, the French consul, informs him that a vessel had Just arrived from Tadiz, whence she had sailed on the 4th bill entitled an act granting certain powers to the police in the other parish of Pointe Coupee, which was read for it WERP HAD CAPITULATED after having sustained a bombardment of fifty six hours.

All tools agreeably to previous notice, introduced the bill entitled an act granting certain powers to the police in the fifth entitled an act granting certain powers to the police in the first time and ordered for a second reading on to morrow. Mr. Canon gave notice that to to-morrow or on a furnity of the parish of fifty six hours. just arrived from Wadiz, whence she had sailed on the 4th bomlardment of fifty six bours.

We have received our file from Havana to the 8th inst. they contain news from Madrid, to the 27th November,from Cadh, to the 2d December.

The creation of a Minister of the Interior, (Secretario de Estado y del Despacho del fone co general del Royno, mention of which has been made by the Indicateur, and born repeated by us three days ago, took place on the 1st December, by a Royal Decree. This department has been committed to Don Victorianode Enuma-y-Picha. To the date of the 27th November, the convalesence the King, continued to be perfectly satisfactory. On the 19th, on the occasion of the anniversary birth-day of Princess Dona Maria Isabelle, the King's elder daughter, there has been a general levee, at which attended the Diplomatic Corps, the State Council, the Granders of Spoin, and the titularies of Castillo, the Deputies of the Provinces, magistrates, high functionaries, general military chiefs, and a great number of other distinguished persons who eagerly seized that opportunity of congratulating their Majesties. In the evening the capital was illuminated.

Several high personages having asked the Queen the permission of opening a subscription to greet a monument which should perpetuate the memory of the decree of amnesty, her Majestg yielded to their demand, and ordered that the plan of their monument should be presented to her without delay. A letter from frun, dated the 18th, mentions that the Lazaretto is already encumbered with a great number of refugees, who in compliance of the decree of amnesty came back to their country, The ex-deputy Ferrer was expecting at Bayonne, the moment he might enter the Lazar tto. The news from France, England, Portugal and Belgium, comprised in the Havana paper are not of a later date than those we already have by our files from the North.

CONGRESSIONAL ANALYSIS. IN SENATE, JANUARY 4th, 1834. John C. Calhoun from South Carolina; Mr. Rives from Virginia, and Mr. Waggaman from Louisiana, appeared and took their seats. Mr, Miller presented the credentials of John C. Calhoun, as senator from South Carolina. Mr. Bonton presented the credentials of Win. C. Rives, as senator from Virginia; both new senatois were then sworn to support the Constitution of the United States. Mr. Dickerson presented several petition from New Jersey, praying that Canaden may be made a port of of entry, which was referred to the Committee on Commerce. The bill to increase the pay of the Medical Staff of the Army was read a second time.

The Chair laid before the Sanate a communication from the Secretary of State, enclosing a copy of a letter from John C. Calhoun, resigning his office as Vice President of the United States.

The following bill from the House, was read twice; and referred. A bill to improve the condition of the non-commissioned officers and privates of the United States Army, and to prevent desertion.

The Hon. John C. Calhoun appeared in the Senate vesterday, was qualified, and took his sent as a Senton Vice-President of the United States. Nat. Intel.

[COMMUNICATED.] Last Monday we had an opportunity of witnessing another interesting trial of skill and agility between O'Rourk, the Champion of the Western world, and a celebrated boxer. We unhesitatingly say that the genus of Mr. O'Rourk is of great advantage as a protection against assault and battery, by the introduction of the street of the satisfaction of the street of the satisfaction of the sat which, the constant use of weapons to decide a triffling which, the constant use of weapons to decide a triffing dispute, to the regret and nisery of many, will be disputed with, and an exercise of puricular use to the human frame, introduced in lieu thersof, the constant attendence to which will give elasticity to the limbs, for which particular which will give elasticity to the limbs, for which purpose we recommend it to the notice of youth.

GYMNASTICK. The following characteristic story is from the Portsn Rich Fodder. - Last week the crew of the United State ship Concord were paid off at the Navy Agent's office it this town, and discharged from service. Forthwith these this tows, and discnarged from service. Forthwith those rickless sone of the ocean were seen wandering up and down our streets, somein coaches and some in chaises which they hired for the day, and some recling along the roads and sidewalks, "half seas over," as sailors term it. One of crease who was protte assantiable doubt had should tree. crew who was pretty essentially drunk, had about two hundred dollars of bank bills in his pockets, but knew met what so do with them. His ship-state advised him to deposit it in the Portsmouth Savings Bank. Jack was very goad-natured about it, and said that he would follow their advice; so he marched on in a direction entirely contrary to the one that led to the Bank, singing and whistling, and as jolly as seed be, when sudddenly he spied a poor miserable old cow just ahead. He made up to her as well as he could, put both arms round her neck. kissed her, hurged ild, put both arms round count, put both arms round her neck, kissed her, hugged her for several minutes and then went off to buy her something to eat. He soon returned with a small basket of potatoes. "Here satisfies many the soon returned with a small basket of pothing to eat. He soon returned with a small basket of po-tatoes. "Here, cat these, my old charity sweetee," said she at the same time putting one into her mouth. "Here, that's good,—now take another—you shall have 'em—and you shall have some of my money, you old honey—you poor old coamely," and he crammed two five dollar bills into her mouth. His mater has weather—has me mine oned ask. out coamely," and he crammed two five dollar bills into her mouth. His mates saw what what was going on and saked him what he meant by feeding the old cow with bank bills? Why do n't you put them into the Savings Bank? "Never mind, she is poor and I am rich; I've got enough left ye," and in west-another potato, followed by a ten dolar bill. Here the other sailors seized hold of him and put stop to his folly.
