JEROME BAYON. STATE PRINTER. WITHE UNION-IT MUST BE PRESERVED."

FRIDAY MORNING, FEB. 22, 1833.

FOR GOVERNOR: J. B. DAWSON.

We are authorized to state, that a meeting of the Louisiand state columnstion society will be held on Saturday evening, the 231 instant, at 7 of the clock, in the Rev. The Cispo's church. A full artendance is requested.

Abstraious.-Corn, fodder, and bacon, are the only sta

C agression d proceeding, that the Tariff Bill loss at fest, passed through the committee of the whole: and w now and Ize a hope that we shall shortly see who desposition will be made of the subject in the House of Representations. The protented debate may now be cut off by a call of the p evinus question, and the fate of the bill in that House may be decided. The Globe expresses the opinion that the question will be decided ducing the present week. Consequently, it cannot be long before we shall know the result.

Considering the tength of time it has eccupied the effection of the House, and that it has yet to pass the model of the Bouste, we think it hardly likely it will to come a low during the present session. If however, i should less the House of Representatives, it may be considered as affording some reason, to be irreusto the close of the next session, under the hope tha their complaints with be attended to, and their general cost pliced. Lethis case we tenst that we shell pass tier ugh the storm, which has threatened a dissolution of the Union, unscathed and unlimit; and formour for opin as and peace may be ultimately restored to the country, although it may be delayed longer than could have been desired. Balt. Rep.

A paragraph has laidly been enculated in the newspapers stoles that Air. Madison had expressed disapprobation of the doctrines of the proclamation. The Washington Gibbe in answer to this report says.

We have no means of knowing what opinions that renetable patriot has expressed on the subject; whatever those one may be, they are so tilled to the highest espect.—His memory, judgment, and reasoning faculties are sumpored, and his live of country is as ardent as in the brightest days of his life. We repeat, that we are not acquainted with the judgment he may have pussed on the Proclamation: but from the opinions he has given on the most important doctrine in it, we are led entirely to disbelieve the essention contained in the paragraph to which we allude His letter to Mr. Eventt, lately impublished, contains a time aphant reflection of the nullifying dogman which were at motive to be diduced from his resolutions of 193.
