

THURSDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 18, 1852.

REPUBLICAN TICKET. ANDREW JACKSON.

MARTIN VAN BUREN.

DEMOCRATIC REPUBLICAN TICKET. Mr. Editor of the Bee and the Standard.

1st District—J. B. PLAUCHE. 2d District—THOMAS W. SCOTT. 3d District—THASIMOND LANDRY. 4th District—ALEXANDRE MOUTON. 5th District—WALTER H. OVERTON.

GOVERNOR. J. B. DAWSON.

To-morrow being "ALL SAINTS' DAY," no papers will be issued from this office, until Saturday morning.

Report of the board of health yesterday: consequently no official report. The reports were as follows:

Catholic cemetery 75. Protestant do 48. Total 123.

During the day, ten have been admitted to the charity hospital, four of which are dead.

We cannot too strongly recommend to the public, the KIELSKYODA of doctor Binaghi, as an anti cholera medicine. As a preservative, it has proved almost universally infallible.

N. B. This KIELSKYODA may be obtained on application at the office of the Bee.

The steambot St. Martin, capt. Turpin, arrived last evening from Louisville, whence she left on the 29th.

The Argus yesterday says that "Wolf certainly elected" in Pennsylvania. We hope its editor will not get the cholera by eating up his "officialism" of the day previous.

A meeting of the republican electors of the eighth ward of this city was held on Friday evening.

By yesterday's northern mail, we received New York papers of the evening of the 16th of October.

The Liverpool packet, New York of Sept. 17th, from Liverpool, had arrived at New York.

The majority for WOLF, by the Pennsylvania papers received yesterday, had 17 added to it, making his majority, 3,524.

Wolf has been carried into the office, in Pennsylvania, by the strength of JACKSON. Without JACKSON's aid, he would have been defeated.

Who are the real candidates for president and vice-president in opposition to Andrew Jackson? The true ticket is as follows, viz:

FOR PRESIDENT. BANK OF THE UNITED STATES. By its Attorney, H. CLAY.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT. BANK OF THE UNITED STATES. JOHN BRANT.

If neither of these candidates can be admitted by the people, the bank is willing to be elected, by its attorneys, William Wirt and Amos Ellmaker, or any other available candidates, its motto being "principals and interest, not men."

The above facts are all certified. Will the Emperors please inform the public of it, and of the origin whence they came?

The advocates of the propositions of Mr. CLAY designate themselves "national republicans."
