EXHIBITION OF THE ART OF FANCY GLASS BLOWING & SPINNING.

EXHIBITION room, corner of Conti street. Entrance 92 Chartres street. Mr. Finn respectfully informs the public, that he will exhibit for a short time, his curious and interesting ART; and can assure those who are disposed to encourage the fine arts, that the exhibition will be found worthy of their attention. The process of modelling figures of animals, &c. from glass, in a state of fusion, is so wonderfully curious, as to fill the beholder with astonishment, and must be witnessed, in order to decide on its merits, as no description can afford an adequate idea of the pleasure it affords. The various productions of the artist, which are rare and exquisite in their construction, are for sale, and well adapted as presents for relatives or a fair friend. Admission 50 cents—children half price. Season tickets, (not transferable,) $1. Open from 10 A M till 5 P M, and from 7 to 9 at night. ma2

BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL, for young ladies, conducted by Madame Granet, in Mr. Gale's new house, Royal street, corner of St. Philip street.—Boarders, for two months, $300, day boarders, do. $100, day scholars, do. $100, washing, do. (optional) $20. Per quarter, piano, do. $21, singing, do. $21, dancing, do. $21. The course of studies comprises a judicious teaching of the French and English languages—literature, writing, drawing, arithmetic, geography, geology, history, and the different sorts of needle work, knitting, tapestry and fancy works. Beds are found by the establishment, but each boarder has to pay $5. Each is to bring 2 pair of sheets, 1 woollen blanket, 1 white, 12 towels, a silver spoon, fork and goblet, a dessert and a sufficient suit of clothes and linen. School and writing books are paid for separately. Payable in two weeks every three months, and in advance, either in cash or in negotiable bills. No deduction for absence.
The children are treated with that mildness, so becoming towards the female portion of society, and as Madame Granet carefully avoids striking their young minds with real or imaginary terrors, so she has made a rule never to punish the least bodily punishment. The increasing success of the establishment and the remarkable progress which the pupils have already made, render it useless to enter into further particulars.

CARSTAIRIAN SYSTEM OF WRITING.

MESSRS. T. P. & R. DOLBEAR, respectfully invites the citizens of New Orleans to call at their writing establishment, No. 48, Canal street, (over Miss Carroll's book store) and examine numerous specimens, executed by ladies and gentlemen who are receiving their instruction, as well as those who have completed their lessons.

The movements of the whole arm, fore arm and fingers, with their combinations, which are given by this system, are adapted to the various purposes of the counting room and parlor, and if properly acquired, will never fail to enable any person to write with ease, elegance and rapidity, without cramping, or paining the hand or wrist—as these systematic movements are founded upon the philosophy of mechanics.
A class of ladies writes daily from 12 to 1, for whom a separate apartment is provided. Gentlemen's apartment open from 9 a. m. to 10 1-2 p. m. Private lessons given at usual. Ornamental ... executed with elegance. Persons visiting the city for a few days only, can receive a full course of lessons. Persons attending this institution are not restricted to a given number of lessons, but all are desired to acquire an elegant hand before they leave, whether it require ten or thirty lessons.
mr 7

CERTIFICATES.

From his Excellency Governor Roman.

I have examined, with attention, the system of writing taught by Mr. Dolbear, and it is with pleasure that I can certify to its superiority over any other method, with which I am acquainted. Mr. Dolbear having given private lessons in my family, I consider it but justice to add, that I believe him as much worthy of public patronage on account of the correctness and mildness of his character, as on account of the rapid improvement of those who received his lessons.
New Orleans, July 2d, 1832. A. B. ROMAN.

On the invitation of Mr. Dolbear, a Teacher of Penmanship, in our city, upon the Carstairian system; we have carefully examined specimens of the writings of his pupils, whose ages range from 3 to 50 years, written through an entire course of instruction; and after having done so, it is with the highest satisfaction, that we can testify to the as did if not unparalled, progress which they have made.
From the specimens seen, and the examination of the system made, we cannot withhold the expression of a concurrent opinion, that the system is greatly superior to any hitherto taught. If to write legibly, elegantly, rapidly, and in good taste, be an accomplishment, useful or desirable, it is upon the principles of this system that it is to be acquired. We therefore anxiously solicit of the public a liberal patronage in favor of an instructor, whose qualifications are of the highest order, and whose labors promise to be so exceedingly useful to this and other communities.
dec 20

From an examination of the system, according to which Mr. Dolbear instructs and from personal observation of the proficiency of many of his pupils, I feel the utmost confidence in recommending him as the ablest teacher of the art of penmanship, with whom I have ever met. His department, also, is that of a gentleman.
