Twenty pair of working oxen,

Gentle horses, American and creole,
Mules, sheep, hogs,
Gig, horse and ox carts,
Agricultural instruments,
Household furniture,
Clock and watches,
Silver plate, kitchen furniture,

And several other articles of which the detail would be too long.

The whole will be also sold the crop now in the ground on the plantation on which Mr. Benoit died.

Conditions of the sale.—The plantation jointly owned with Mr. Dubuclet to be paid for at four equal payments, of 1, 2, 3 and 4 years, and all the other property in two equal payments of 1 and 2 years, dating from the first of the present month of May; the purchasers furnishing their notes, with good and sufficient joint security, to the satisfaction of the testamentary executors of the late Mr. Benoit; the said notes to be payable at a domicile which will be made known on the day of sale, and bearing an interest of ten per cent per annum from their maturity until final payment, without the purchasers availing themselves of this clause on interest to delay the payment, which will be rigorously exacted at the time fixed, notwithstanding the said clause, of which the heirs of the late Mr. Benoit, and those of his wife may alone profit and grant a longer time to the purchasers if they think proper: and moreover, every thing capable of being mortgaged, to remain mortgaged by privilege until real and effectual payment of principal and interest.

The sale will take place on the plantation where Mr. Benoit resided, situate at Fausse Pointe, on the right bank of the bayou Teche.
