THE UNION—NOT BE PRESERVED.
WEDNESDAY MORNING, DEC. 4, 1833.

FOR GOVERNOR:
J. B. DAWSON.

FOR MAYOR:
JOHN H. HOLLAND.

FOR RECORDER:
ANTONIO DUCROS.

FOR ALDERMAN—5th Ward,
ALFRED DUCROS.

FOR CONGRESS:
1st District—CHARLES CAYARRÉ.
2d District—JAMES M. BRADFORD.

An Act of the Legislature, approved 14th March 1830.

ART. 5. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor and Recorder shall be chosen from among the citizens who are heads of families, and resident within the city at the time of their election, and possess the other qualifications required by the existing laws.

Fellow citizens, if the law requires this as a condition in completing the eligibility of a candidate for the place of Mayor, judge if respect for public manners and morals, does not more imperiously exact that it should be found in a candidate for the office of Governor.

The Mail of yesterday affords nothing to cheer our dull and monotonous meridian, in the news line. We find our exchanges exceedingly "stale, flat, and unprofitable." Dum pere morose propebus, say we.

We call the attention of our readers to an advertisement in our columns, of Mr. Murray, a professor of Music. The gent man sustains a distinguished character in his profession, and has been favourably received wherever he has given lessons; we hope that our citizens will give him the encouragement which he is so well entitled to.

The Camp Street Theatre has, since its opening, produced, with decided success, many standard plays. We feel great pleasure in noticing the disposition to gratify the public with representations not only calculated to afford gratification, but which will contribute to the refinement and improvement of the stage, and make it what it ought to be, the public monitor, the school for moral instruction.

The present managers deserve the thanks of the friends of the true drama for the attention which they have manifested to place upon its proper basis, and we do hope that a discerning public will not hesitate to reward their spirited and laudable efforts.

The stage has always, under proper regulations, exercised a happy influence upon society, and although it may be perverted to unworthy purposes, and become a powerful adjunct to lewdness, yet, we believe, no public institution can do more towards polishing and refining a people, and elevating and improving their minds than it can. It should therefore be a matter of general concern that it meet with an encouragement commensurate with the benefits which it may be the means of conferring.

Mrs. Knight, a worthy widow, and an address and statistics of an ordinary merit, appears to our citizens this evening, for a benefit. The claims of one who unites so much to recommend her, should not be overlooked, and we trust that the proper appreciation will be manifested.

LATEST FROM MEXICO.

By the arrival of the brig Thaddeus and Bonita, from Tampoco, we have intelligence up to the 23d of November, containing news from the capital to the 13th. The statements made in our paper of Monday last, as to the re-establishment of order, and the expulsion of certain persons, is confirmed.

From the brig Sancta Anna's political connection with the late President, we have always expressed the opinion that she alone was capable of settling and averting the crisis which has more than once threatened its liberties. We have at times been singular in this opinion, scarcely any one of our contemporaries agreeing with us; while many openly denounced and abused him. His patriotism has been often put to such severe tests, and his course under all circumstances has been so honorable, that the sentiments of those who regarded him with jealousy, as being little better than the mass of his countrymen, have undergone a total revolution in his favor, and he now holds a conspicuous place among those distinguished patriots whose energies both of mind and body have been observed for the glory and honor of their country. As evidence of the dispelling of the mist that hitherto enshrouded the political horizon of Mexico, we subjoin the following letters forwarded by correspondents:

Extract of a letter, dated Mexico, Nov. 13, 1833.

"The Congress has decreed, that in future the merchandise imported in national vessels shall pay 20 per centum less than that imported in foreign ones; this decree is dated the 24th October.

Another decree suspending the bonds for duties has been adopted by government, in accordance with the firm conviction that tranquility is permanently restored.

The Congress has also decreed, that the money and effects belonging to the Convents and Churches, amounting, as it is said, to the sum of one million of dollars, shall be appropriated to the payment of the National debt."

Mexico, Nov. 7th 1833.

"There is a project now before Congress, which, if sanctioned, will permit the duty of drawback in entrepot. This will have the effect of doing away with the custom-house in the interior. Zavalas, and other men equally enlightened, support the measure."

"Mexico, Nov. 6, 1833.

"The Epulsados y Prisioneros of Guaxuarato left here on Sunday last, with an escort, for Vera Cruz, and it is said they will embark for New Orleans. If so, you will see again all the good folks at least, a part of them. The Fueros in the South of Mexico, have surrendered to the Government, and with the exception of Canasizo and Duran in Oaxaca, and a few bands of robbers, who prowl for the purpose of robbing the country is quiet, and I hope it will remain so.—The Thames (thames) are abolished. The law creating comarcas (provinces) annulled. A new tariff is under way, abolishing the internal custom-house. A reorganization of the army is also in contemplation. The convents are open for all those that are willing to quit them; and some of our inmates have already availed themselves of the facility of so doing."

"We announced the arrival of these percentages in our paper of Monday last.

The Hon. Mr. Buchanan, late Representative of the United States at the Court of Russia, has arrived in Philadelphia, and has been greeted by an invitation to a public dinner.

A meeting of the friends of Henry Clay was to have taken place in Philadelphia on the evening of the 19th ultimo.—The object is not known—nor, not even conjectured. The Philadelphia Intelligencer notices the meeting, and remarks: "The wise-acre of the Clay party are a mould of dust.—They have, most of them, been on the losing side since the death of John Adams, and seem determined to remain there."

Excitement in Richmond.—A friend in this city has communicated to us a letter just received from a highly respectable gentleman in Richmond, from which we make the following extracts:

"Richmond, Nov. 18th, 1833.

"Our city is in a considerable agitation to-day. The Government ordered the troops of Cavalry to be readjusted at the taking away of John P. Mason, in consequence of his being named by the Government as a candidate for the office of Governor. The Government has actually been to see the President twice, after which his orders were issued. The statement here that evening is very gross—the preparation of the letter looks rather ugly. I am in hopes of seeing you very soon."

The last papers received from Richmond, state that Mr. Randolph was arrested by the Marshal of the United States for that crime, and confined in a cell in the State Prison, by virtue of a warrant of attachment issued by the Congress of the 15th May, 1834, for a sum exceeding 20,000 dollars. Mr. Randolph, the son of the Richmond Wig, was also arrested by the Marshal on Thursday last, for an alleged contempt in refusing to obey the process requiring his appearance before the County Court of Alexandria, as a witness in the case of Mr. Randolph's assault upon the Marshal.

The Richmond Compiler, an opposition print, contains a violent article on the subject of the arrest of Randolph, in which it is said that the proceedings were entirely general, and that the Marshal was not to be held responsible for the arrest, which he arrested in more than five times the amount of the balance found against him by the Court of Inquiry. The same paper also contains a notice of the arrest of Mr. Randolph's friends, who were willing to stand by the security for the arrest of their countryman, to be in jail, the victim of those whose base and malevolent passions have brought him to his present situation. The Compiler's account of the arrest of Randolph, and of the friends who were willing to stand by the security for the arrest of their countryman, to be in jail, the victim of those whose base and malevolent passions have brought him to his present situation. The Compiler's account of the arrest of Randolph, and of the friends who were willing to stand by the security for the arrest of their countryman, to be in jail, the victim of those whose base and malevolent passions have brought him to his present situation.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 19.

TRIAL OF THE MANSONS.

The trial of Robert Manson, from Manson, and Joseph B. Stratford, for a conspiracy to murder, and assault and battery upon the person of the late Governor, commenced on Monday morning, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, before Judges King and Knight.

The case for the defence is supported by the separate trials for the defendants, in order that the witness of Stratford and Manson might be respectively examined in the cases in which their husbands would not be on trial. Judge King, in an able and eloquent opinion, held that the evidence against the separate trials was not sufficient to warrant a verdict against the defendants. A jury was then called, and after a trial of several days, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendants. The case was then adjourned until the next morning.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20.

PHILADELPHIA Steam Boat Company has been at length organized. The importance of the object to which the company is engaged, and the success which it has already achieved, are so generally known, that it is unnecessary to say more than that the company is now in a position to commence its operations with a fleet of vessels, and to carry on a regular trade between Philadelphia and New Orleans.
