HOUSE WANTED,—For a small genteel private family—rent not to exceed fifty dollars por month. Any where from Canal street to St Peter btreet would answer. For particulars, enquire of AYER, DELANY & CO. 40 Old Leves st. near Blue Stores.

ESPECTFULLY informs the public hat he has removed to the house recently occupied by Dr. Ker, et the corner of Canal and Royal streets, over the Post Office, (entrance No. 6, Royal street,) where he may be found from 9 o'clock, A. M. until 5 P. M., ready to attend to the duties of his profession, and where he invites those to the duties of his profession, and where he invites those who wish to employ or consult him to call, as it is impossible for him to leave his rooms during those hours, except in cases of indispositios. He has rooms for the accommodation of his visiters, separate and distinct from his family spartments, where they can be entirely private during the performance of an operation, or whilst watting for his services, should he be at the time engaged. His charges will be such as are sanctioned by the usages of his profession and will not be deviated from excent for persons of limited and will not be deviated from except for persons of limited means, or where families are to be attended to, then a resonable deduction will be made. As he has no assistant ia his business, and as it is expected that he will be found to his business, and as it is expected that he will be found always in his rooms, it must be obvious to all, that it is impossible for him to keep books and attend personally to the collection of his bills; he therefore respectfully solicits those who receive his services to make settlement at the time, or attend to it as soon as convenient to themselves, time, or attend to it as soon as convenient to the inserver, as he has given offence to some by presenting his accounts through another person employed for that purpose. It is expected that punctuality will be strictly observed where positive engagements are made, or an excuse furnished in time, as a neglect to do this may subject others who have made engagements to disappointment and him to loss and inconvenience. Those indebted for services rendered during the last season, will oblige him by calling and paying
