WARNING.

MESSRS. T P & E DOLBEAR, have the pleasure to inform the citizens of New Orleans that they have returned, and re-opened their Writing Establishment, (this day,) at their former location, (48 Canal street,) where they have numerous specimens, exhibiting the improvement of their pupils, in this and other Cities, which they will be happy to present to their friends and public generally. Those persons who did not complete their lessons previous to the sickly season, are invited to call and do so now, without extra charge. Ladies who prefer, can receive lessons at their own residence.—The following testimonials are inserted for the satisfaction of those transient persons who have not yet had an opportunity of witnessing the result of their method of instruction:—

From His Excellency Governor Roman.

I have examined with attention, the system of writing taught by Mr. Dolbear, and it is with pleasure that I certify to its superiority over any other method with which I am acquainted. Mr. Dolbear, having given private lessons in my family, I consider it but justice to add, that I believe him as much worthy of public patronage on account of the correctness and mildness of his character, as on account of the rapid improvement of those who receive his lessons.

New Orleans, July 2, 1834. A. B. ROMAN

New Orleans, 12th May, 1832

On the invitation of Mr Dolbear, a teacher of Penmanship in our city, upon the Carstairian system; we have carefully examined specimens of the writings of his pupils, whose ages range from 8 to 50 years, written through an entire course of instruction: and after having done so, it is with the highest satisfaction that we can testify to the rapid if not unparalled progress which they have made.

From the specimens seen, and the examination of the system made, we cannot withhold the expression of a current opinion, that the system is greatly superior to any hitherto taught. If to write legibly, elegantly, rapidly, and in good taste be an accomplishment useful or desirable, it is upon the principles of this system that it is to be acquired. We therefore anxiously solicit of the public a liberal patronage in favor of an instructer, whose qualifications are of the highest order, and whose labors promise to be so exceedingly useful to this and other communities.

ENGLISH CATTLE.

DESCENDANTS from the stock imported from England to Kentucky in the year 1817, by Lewis Sanders, Smith and Tergarder. The excellence of this breed is now fully established as superior to all others for Milk and for Beef. A few young bulls and heifers of this very superior breed, from the farm of Mr. Sanders, are gow in the city for sale, to such gentlemen as are disposed to improve their breed of Cattle.

Also several very valuable Milk Cows with young calves of good blood; and other Cows with young calves, highly valuable for their milking qualities.

To show what great improvements have been made since this breed was introduced into Kentucky, Mr. S. has brought down the fine fat Bullocks that took the premium at the last meeting of the Lexington Agricultural Society. A few weeks ago those Bullocks were weighed at the hay scales in Lexington,

The large red ox weighed	3050 lbs.
The red ox with motley face,	2720 do
The brindle calf four years old,	2440 do

All the above cattle may be seen in one of Mr. Parker's extensive buildings, corner of Commerce and St. Joseph streets, at any time after 1 o'clock to day.

Mr. S. will attend the greater part of every day, to name the price, give pedegrees, and any information that may be required touching the cattle. For further particulars application may be made to SLOO & BYRNE,

DR. PARSONS,

SURGEON DENTIST, from New York,

RESPECTFULLY informs the Ladies and Gentlemen of New Orleans, and its vicinity, that he has taken rooms at Mrs Fox's, No. 147 Chartres street, where he performs any operation on the teeth and Gums in a style not surpassed.

NATURAL and ARTIFICIAL TEETH set in the best manner, and at the most reasonable charges. Also PORCELAIN TEETH, from a single one to a whole set.

On the first appearance of Tartar or Scurvy, Teeth should always be cleansed, as the corrosion of the Tartar will in a short time reach the roots of the teeth, and they will eventually fall out; and by attending to them in season they may be restored, at a trifling expense, to their original beauty.

The operation of plugging and filing the Teeth when decayed, is so truly important that it is impossible to recommend it too earnestly to the attention of the public. Thousands of the most useful Teeth, which otherwise would, on account of their painfulness, be sacrificed by extraction, may thus be preserved for many years.

From a practice of Dental Surgery for more than twenty years, he hopes to merit a continuation of public patronage. The most difficult Teeth and Roots extracted.

The most celebrated Tooth Powder and Tooth brushes may be had.

N. B. He will attend at the dwelling of those Ladies and Gentlemen who request it.

PROSPECTUS

OF ST. LOUIS UNIVERSITY,

(MISSOURI.)

THIS Literary Establishment was incorporated by an Act of the Legislature of the State, on the 29th of December, 1832, under the name and style of the "St Louis University," and empowered to distinguish merit by literary honors and rewards, and, generally, to have and enjoy all the powers, rights and privileges, usually exercised by literary institutions of the same rank. It enjoys many other considerable advantages which recommend it to the public. The amenity and salubrity of its site on the heights of the City of St. Louis, removed from any occasion of dissipation, are peculiarly favourable to the application of the Student, whilst its proximity to the Mississippi facilitates the means of communication with all the places situated on its banks, and on those of its tributary streams. The Professors, six in number, are members of the Catholic Clergy, exclusively devoted to the education of youth, in virtue and science, and spare no pains to improve the hearts and inform the minds of their pupils. They are aided in this undertaking by five Assistant Tutors.

PLAN OF INSTRUCTION.

The course of instruction embraces both a Mercantile and a Classical education, but so conducted, that the Student may apply himself to either or both of these, according to his destination, or the desire of his Parents.

The MERCANTILE DEPARTMENT, embraces Reading, Writing, the English and French Languages, Poetry, Rhetoric, History, Geography, Mithology, Book-keeping, Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, the use of the Globes, Trigonometry, Mensuration, and Surveying.

The CLASSICAL DEPARTMENT, besides the above specified subjects, comprises the Latin and Greek Languages, Logic, Metaphysics, Moral and Natural Philosophy, and the higher branches of the Mathematics.

The Spanish, if required, is taught to the Students of both Departments, without any additional charge.

The English is the ordinary language of communication in all the classes, the French and the Spanish excepted; but the Students speak French and English indiscriminately, during the hours of recreation.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

The Scholastic year commences on the first day of September, and ends on the thirty first of july, on which day a public Exhibition, and a Distribution of Premiums take place; and those who have finished their classical course, if found qualified, are admitted to the degree of A. B. A general Examination of all the classes is made on the days immediatoly preceding the Exhibition. The degree of A. M. will be given to Students, who, after having completed their course, shall have devoted at least two years to some literary pursuit. Other Academical honors will be granted to merit and distinction in the learned Professions.

During the annual vacations, in August, the Students are allowed to visit their Parents, or to enjoy the amusements of the country, in the healthy neighborhood of the City of St. Louis. On the first Monday of every month, the different places obtained by the pupils in their respective classes, are publicly announced, and medals and ribbands are given, as badges of distinction, to the most deserving in each class. The following day is a general recreation day, and so is every Thursday in the year; on these days the Students are permitted to amuse themselves by walking, fishing, bathing, &c. Hunting is allowed only during the vacations in August. The pupils are, at all times, under the superintendence of one or more of the Professors.

Every three months, Bulletins are sent to the Parents or Guardians, to inform them of the character, conduct, health and proficiency, of the Boarders. Once a month the Students are allowed to visit their Parents, if they live in the city, or its vicinity, but they must return before dark.

An experienced Physician daily visits the University, to which is attached an infirmary, separated from the other buildings to promote quiet, and prevent the danger of contagion. The sick are attended with the greatest punctuality and the most tender care.

Violations of the established discipline of the University are repressed in a kind, parental manner; corporal punishment is inflicted only for grievous offences, and by none but the President, or, in his absence, by the Vice-President. Those who, in spite of all efforts to correct them, prove refractory, and corrupted in their morals, will be sent back to their Parents, or Agents.

The public exercises of Religion are those of the Catholic Church; but pupils of all denominations are received, provided they are willing, for the sake of order and uniformity, to assist at the public duties of divine service and prayer with their companions.

No Student is admitted under the age of 8 years, nor above that of 16, unless for special reasons; and in all cases it is required, that he bear a good moral character, and know how to write and read his vernacular language.

TERMS:

The TERMS, including all the branches above specified, as also washing, mending, Doctor's fees and stationary, payable half yearly in advance, are $150 per annum, and $10 entrance. Music, Drawing, and extraordinary attendance during sickness, form extra charges. Medicines and School-books are furnished at the store prices.

Should the parents wish to have the washing and mending done at home, a deduction will be made of $18 per annum; and should they wish to employ a Physician, different from the one in attendance, or to run the risk of paying a DOLL BILL, a deduction of $
