Several of the back mails came to hand late last evening. The latest New-York dates are to the 23d and the latest from Charleston to the 31st ult. Three mails from the former place, and one from the latter are still due.

Before charging the Argus with ingloriously striking its banner, we should like to know what prevented it from announcing in its last number, as usual, the names of the candidates whom it selected for the offices of governor and mayor. It may have been an accidental omission—we trust for the character of our neighbor it was, although, at the same time, somehow or other, we have most uncharitable suspicions. Will he be candid and frank enough to explain? If we have wronged him even by bare suspicion, he most pardon us, and place it to the proper motive.

The presence in the American Theatre of an armed body of men—a detachment of the city guard—with the evident design of dragooning the audience into good behavior, is an infraction of the personal rights and privileges of the citizens and the respect due to them; and we believe we are supported by public opinion when we say, that the complaints against it are loud and general. At the French Theatre it is not tolerated; the gentry to whom we allude are stationed outside, subject to be introduced when any emergency requires it. We can see no pretext that may be all ged in the one case that will not apply with equal force to the other. It will not surely be pretended that the visitors of Camp street are more unruly than those of Orleans, or require to be intimidated or kept more in awe. The Orleans Theatre is seldom disturbed with rows or fracasses, and when it is, the guards have but little power to quell them. It is, however, proper that they should be at hand, and that they should on certain occasions act with decision and promptitude. No objection can be raised to this; but to have a squad of them, as we have frequently noticed in the midst of a respectable audience—occupying often seats to the exclusion of the citizens—armed cap-a-pie, ready at a moments warning, to do the work of death, and perhaps to sacrifice the innocent with the guilty, is revolting to humanity and disgraceful in every view of the case to our manners and morals as a people.

We are not aware of any ordinance or law authorizing the presence of such persons in the body of Theatres. Commissaires of the police are alone, we believe, tolerated, and are to all intents and purposes capable of preserving the public peace.

With the best feelings to Messrs. Russell & Rowe, we would recommend to their serious attention the few hints here thrown out. Consequences may now be averted which we can do nothing more hereafter than deplore. The still small voice of prudence should dictate the absolute necessity of avoiding the point at issue.

CONGRESS.—In the Senate, on the 24th inst. Mr. Webster presented the proceedings and resolutions of the citizens of New Bedford, Mass. in relation to the present state of the currency.

Mr. Preston concluded his remarks on the removal of the deposites; when, after attending to executive business, the Senate, on motion of Mr. Forsyth, adjourned till Monday.

In the House of Representatives, on the same day after the transaction of the usual morning business, the consideration of the resolution to grant pensions to those engaged in warfare with the Indians was resumed; and Mr. Lane of Louisiana, concluded his remarks. A communication from the Postmaster General was received, with a statement of the receipts in the various post offices for the year 1933. The resolutions and bills on the Speaker's table were then taken up: and the House then went into the discussion of private business, in which they continued engaged until the adjournment.

The House stood adjourned to Monday.

From the Savannah Georgian, January 23.

FROM MATANZAS AND HAVANA.

By the schooner Deluvian, Capt. Green, from Matanzas, we have received a price Current of that place of the 17th, and the Havana Noticioso, to the 17th inst. The latter contains news direct, which is LATEST FROM SPAIN, being up to the 8th of December.

General Sarsfield, in a Proclamation dated Bilboa, Nov. 26, exhorts all insurgents to return to their duty, and that in case of their submitting, a full pardon will be granted by the Queen Regent, and states that all who do not, will be punished with all the rigor of the law.

General Don Jodequin Vara de Rey, Commandant of Burgos on the 1st December, sent a detachment of Grenadiers and Chasseurs to the village of Torredemar; and captured several of the insurgent leaders, among them Don Nicholas Mordly Revenga, Procurate of the parish of Torredemar; and Don Felix Moral, the curate of Quintanilla Sammoz; and Don Santiago Gonzalez, an insurgent Lieutenant. Some important Documents were secured.

Sarsfield the General in Chief of the Army of Observation, in a despatch to the Minister of War, under date of the 2d December, states that he has constantly in motion all the forces of the army, with the exception of the two garrisons of Vitoria and Bilboa, in order to finish the dispersion of the rebels in that province. He states that rebels are flying in all directions.

The official documents contained in these papers, speak in a confident tone of the success of the Queen Regent's arms.

We do not see any notice taken of the whereabouts of Don Carlos, or of Merino.

We should judge that the cause of the Carlists was very hopeless, under present circumstances, with the victorious army of Sarsfield tracking them in their flight.

SHORT PASSAGE.—The packet ship Napoleon, Captain Smith, sailed from New-York on the 9th of November, and arrived at Liverpool on the 25th, after a run of only sixteen days, from dock to dock.

We have understood (says the Pendleton Messenger,) that it is the intention of Mr. M'Duffie to retire from Congress at the expiration of his present term.

By accounts from Rome, we learn, (says the Baltimore Federal Gazette) that great agitation prevails in the papal cabinet, and that three of the Cardinals were about leaving the Capital—Cardinal Castracani for Parma, Modena and Tuscany; Cardinal Falsacappa for Turin; and Cardinal Odescalchi for Vienna. The object of their missions was believed to be for the purpose of forming an Italian confederation which was recommended by the northern powers. Accounts from Greece, of the 10th October, by way of Trieste, state that arrests of conspirators, or suspected conspirators, are still going on.

THE SOVEREIGNS OF EUROPE.—There are forty-nine reigning sovereigns in Europe, exclusive of Otho, who was elected to his present rank. Nineteen of these Catholics, seventeen Lutherans, five reformed Dutch, five Evangelical, one Episcopalian, one of the Greek Church, and one of the Mahometan. The oldest of them is Antkony of Saxony, who is 78; the youngest, Ferdinand of the two Sicilies, who is 24, and Donna Maria, who is 15. Frederick, Grand Duke of Saxe Hildenburg has been on the throne longest—53 years. The youngest at accession were those of the German Princes, who were 3, 4, and 5. There are two Republican rulers in Europe, the Landsmann of Switzerland, and the President of the Ionian Isles.

Sec. 15. Be it further enacted, &c., That nothing contained in the 11th section of the act to which this is a supplement, shall prevent the President and Directors of said Company from retaining as a surplus fund so much of the half yearly dividends therein provided, to be made, as shall appear to them advisable.

Sec. 19. Be it further enacted, &c., That the President and Directors shall be the judges of the sufficiency of the mortgages and value of the property mortgaged for the stock and loans and shall have power to refuse or reject the same if insufficient and in that case require other security and in default reduce the shares subscribed to the amount for which sufficient security is offered and the mortgages for stock and loans granted by virtue of this act, shall bear ten per cent per annum after maturity until paid; and the said Company shall have the right to cause to be seized and sold according to law the property mortgaged, sort to the hypothecary action as required in cases of transfer of mortgaged property.

Lines supposed to be written by a Father on receiving a present from his daughter of a large printed Bible.

God's blessing on thy head, my child!
Thy father breathes the prayer,
And, as an offering to the skies,
May it be hallowed there.

For I am now an aged man—
There's dimness on my sight,
And naught but God's most holy word
Can give my soul delight.

For I've seen the end of human things,
How on all on earth is vain—
Nor for ambition's brightest crown
Would I run my course again.

I've known the emptiness of state;
The madness and the pride
Of high-born lities, where the great,
With guilty joys, preside.

My friends were friends of sunny hours—
My love is in her grave;
My noble boys, from death's cold grasp,
Affection could not save.

Wealth, honors, revelry, and mirth,
Alternate crowded my brow;
But with each joy the vainest prize,
I ne'er knew peace till now.

And thou art left, my darling one!
Thy Father's heart to cheer—
A sun-beam on his weary path
Of daily lingering here.

And when at last his race is o'er,
And thou art all alone,
Take back thy gift, as friend and guide,
To Heaven's eternal throne.

The Committee of Claims, to whom was referred the claim of Wm. F. C. Duplessis, have the honor to report—

That they have taken into consideration the said claim, and believe it founded on equity and justice. Mr. Duplessis has, it appears, from his own funds paid, for the use and benefit of the State, the sum of two hundred and eighty dollars, for the materials furnished and work and labor done, to complete side-walk in front of the Government house. It further appears, by the statement of the Treasurer hereunto annexed, that the State will be entitled to receive from the city, under an ordinance thereof, a sum that will more than reimburse the present expenditure. The Committee is also of opinion that Mr. Duplessis is entitled to receive from the State an interest of ten per cent. per annum, on the amount of this claim, from the time he paid the money; and your Committee therefore, presents no additional section to the bill for the relief of the Mayor of the city of New Orleans, now on its passage through this House. The whole of which is respectfully submitted. JAMES PORTER, Chairman.

COMMERCIAL.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 30.

COTTON.—A good business has been done in this article during the past two or three days, arising principally, we believe, from the competition which exists among shippers who are filling up vessels now loading. The stock on hand is small, and all descriptions are in good request at last week's prices. Prime quality Santees are scarce, and sales have been effected at 3-4 a 1 cent above our last quotations.
