THE DUHERTISIAN SYSTEM OF WRITING.

Taught by the real inventor in Six Lessons of one hour each. It embraces all that beauty and facility in the use of the pen so generally admired, and so essential to every purpose of life and business, and is capable of correcting the most confirmed habits, at any period of life, even to sixty years of age and upwards.

The improvement is guaranteed, so that the pupil will receive additional lessons gratuitously, should he or she not, from any cause whatever, be finished in six—What can be fairer?

SHORT HAND.

The invaluable and delightful Art of Reporting taught in Six Lessons, as fast as any person can speak; together with an entirely new plan, (made use of by the London and Edinburgh Reporters,) with their mode of following a speaker by contractions, and their infallible method of abreviating and decyphering, without burthening the memory.

Academy No 43, Camp street, corner of Gravier, New Orleans,

Mr. DUHERTIS begs leave to repeat his grateful acknowledgments to the Ladies and Gentlemen of New Orleans and the public generally, for the very great and distinguished patronage he has received since his practice amongst them; and respectfully announces that he will continue during the remainder of his stay, (which is now very short) to communicate his systems with that uniformity and brilliancy of success, which excites the wonder and commands the suffrages of the enlightened, the reflecting, and the critical.

☞ Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, devoted exclusively to the instruction of Ladies, and received at any hour from 10 o'clock, a. m. to 3. Gentlemen on the other days and from 5 to 9 every evening. mar 19

J. R. PUTNAM, DENTIST,

RESPECTFULLY informs the public that he has removed to the house recently occupied by Dr. Ker, at the corner of Canal and Royal streets, over the Post Office, (entrance No. 6, Royal street,) where he may be found from 9 o'clock, A. M. until 5 P. M., ready to attend to the duties of his profession, and where he invites those who wish to employ or consult him to call, as it is impossible for him to leave his room during those hours, except in cases of indisposition. He has rooms for the accommodation of his visiters, separate and distinct from his family apartments, where they can be entirely private during the performance of an operation, or whilst waiting for his services, should he be at the time engaged. His charges will be such as are sanctioned by the usages of his profession and will not be deviated from except for persons of limited means, or where families are to be attended to, then a reasonable deduction will be made. As he has no assistant in his business, and as it is expected that he will be found always in his rooms, it must be obvious to all, that it is impossible for him to keep books and attend personally to the collection of his bills; he therefore respectfully solicits those who receive his services to make settlement at the time, or attend to it as soon as convenient to themselves, as he has given offence to some, by presenting his accounts through another person employed for that purpose. It is expected that punctuality will be strictly observed where positive engagements are made, or an excuse furnished in time, as a neglect to do this may subject others who have made engagements to disappointment and him to loss and inconvenience. Those indebted for services rendered during the last season, will oblige him by calling and paying their bills. nov 29

DOYLE & MAY,

NOTICE.—We deem it our duty to inform the public, that Mr H Varillot, (a clerk employed by Messrs Carriere & Borduzat,) has taken the benefit of the law, to avoid the payment of the sum of * lent by us to his wife and children during their stay in New York.

mar 26 J & J DARRAMON.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I CONSIDER it my duty to give to the public and my friends, a proper explanation upon a certain calumnious article published in the Bee of yesterday by Messrs J J Darramon. Still astonished by such base behaviour of theirs towards me, I hasten to declare that no advances whatever have been made by them to my family during their stay in New York, and that engaged by them in the latter place, I was promised that my expences should be defrayed to this city, which they have forfeited.

On my leaving their house in July 1833, I was on settlement in their debt, $106; it was for that paltry sum and the amount of my passage $50, that they were induced to the infamy of prosecuting me with the utmost rigour and to attempt to injure my reputation. Installments with good security has been offered, they refused it—satisfaction has also been demanded but equally rejected. What else remains for me as regards them, but to denounce to the public, them as unworthy the notice of any Gentlemen, they having acted as Cowards.

Farther, I have to state, that on satisfaction being demanded through my friend Mr. Louis A Nadaud, from James Darramon, who at first accepted a verbal challenge, but on cowardly considerations thought proper to crawl out of the affair and keep so, even on his own propositions advanced, which were accepted unexpectedly to his wishes.
