NOTICE.—M. BACHIER, Drapier, informs us that he has just established an apothecary shop at the corner of Barracks and Royal streets. He keeps on hand a general supply of every thing connected with Pharmacy, as Chemical operations and Medicines, either wholesale or retail. The prescriptions of Physicians will be executed with care and prudence; and will be sent to the houses of persons who for their circumstances cannot themselves make their purchases, &c. &c.

He will give his best exertions to please and satisfy the apothecaries, and will accept every facility in paying.

He has on hand a regular supply of Laces, as well as general assortments of patent medicines from different countries. He will neglect nothing that can insure public convenience and support: he begs those accustomed with him to continue the kind protection bithers extended.
