

THE BEE.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED DAILY, BY JEROME DAYTON,
STATE PRINTERS.

THE UNION—INDEMNITY PRESERVED."

THE SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 16, 1834.

FOR GOVERNOR:
H. J. DAWSON,
SECOND SENATORIAL DISTRICT,
B. MARIGNY.

1. An answer to some strictures made in the Charleston Courier respecting the loss of his packet brig Sabine, on her last voyage to that place, has been handed to us for publication by the passengers. It shall appear in our next number.

Extracts from Lloyd's List to the 13th February, will be found under our marine head.

NEWS EXPECTED.

The packetship Roscoe, Capt. Deane, from Liverpool, was telegraphed outside the New-York bar on the 31st ult., last Friday, 11 A.M.; but her papers had not been received. The Roscoe will bring thirteen days later intelligence of the passengers. It shall appear in our next number.

2. An answer to some strictures made in the Charleston Courier respecting the loss of his packet brig Sabine, on her last voyage to that place, has been handed to us for publication by the passengers. It shall appear in our next number.

3. Extracts from Lloyd's List to the 13th February, will be found under our marine head.

CITY COUNCIL.

(Reported for the Bee.)

The proceedings of the last meeting having been read, Mr. Schmidt moved that a committee be named to verify the elections of the 7th inst.

This motion was adopted.—Messrs. Buisson, Hubbard, and Schmidt were appointed, as members of said committee.

The Secretary having read a letter from Judge Bernier, of the 4th Ward, protesting against the election of Mr. Agius.

M. Schmidt moved that the same be referred to a special committee. He thought, that as the status of the committee upon election ceased at the end of the sitting, it would be improper, to refer to them a question that might last for several weeks.

This motion being adopted, Messrs. Schmidt, Dixon and Marigny were named members of this committee.

M. Montfort moved 3 res.—granted.

The Committee having again met, Mr. Schmidt proposed a report from the committee upon elections, declaring that the following gentlemen had been duly elected for their several weeks:

Meiss, Schmidt & Pritchard, for the 1st; Mr. Dawson, for the 2nd; Mr. Agius, for the 4th; Mr. Montfort, for the 5th; Mr. Marigny, for the 6th; Mr. Dixon, for the 7th; and Mr. Buisson, for the 8th.

It was thereupon ordered by the committee that these gentlemen take their seats as Vice-Chairmen.

The Reverend Mr. Gilbertson, then rose and addressed the Council in substance as follows:

Gentlemen—I do not believe that the rules of the Council permit me, before you begin to deliberate on the subject, to speak to you, except as respects the election of the new Council, for they have morally allotted me to the election of the members of the Grand Purchaser of Men and Votes in Philadelphia.

We have Paris' list of papers by the ships Olympia and Napoleon to the 13th ult. They have been anticipated by later dates received at New-York, and we find no additional particulars which may be deemed important. Their general tenor goes to corroborate the belief that the liberal cause was likely to triumph in Spain, and that Don Miguel would finally be overthrown.

Among the extracts we have made it will be seen, that the venerable patriot Lafayette, the pride and boast of the two continents, was in danger for a sickness. It gives us pleasure, however, to see by the following extract of a letter, from the Pennsylvania Intelligencer, that the statement we publish is somewhat exaggerated, and that the General was convalescent:

"All is quiet here. General Lafayette who took a heavy cold at the funeral, is going on foot to Paris to Ghent, is getting better and is in fact nearly well."

Claims on France for Subsidies.—We perceive by the Baltimore Advertiser, that the period for the execution of the Convention with France for subsidies on account of supplies for American volunteers will be prolonged in consequence of an arrangement made between the two governments through the medium of our minister at Paris. The distribution of the funds payable by France will take place immediately at the receipt; and there is reason, we are given to understand, as well from the disposition of the present French chamber of deputies, as from the state of our relations with that country, to deem that the amount of the first instalment will be speedily rendered available.

The report and resolutions of the committee of ways and means in the national house of representatives, upon the 15th ult., it is probable, was finally disposed of last week on a call for the previous question. Our Washington correspondents give the following extract of a letter, from the 15th ult., "Some fair business transaction, which might appear fatal to those and immediately interest me, might come to light." "A word to the wise," &c. etc.

LATEST FROM PORTUGAL.

A vessel that left Lisbon on the 15th Feb. has recently arrived at Boston. At the time of her sailing things were tranquil in the Portuguese capital, but the Magdalenes were still in various parts of the kingdom. It was apprehended that the vessels quartered at Santarem in large force, were about to make a gallant attack on St. Ueza and Palmela.

The pause in Lisbon has disappeared.—The American says, "that on the 25th ult. it appears they had died away entirely. The promptitude with which the demands were met, and the quick ability of the banks to cash their notes, will at once account for the comparatively limited operations of the panic, and its early and complete cessation."

Sales at the N. Y. Stock Exchange, March 31.

100 shares U. S. Bank, 104
100 do. N. O. Canal Bank, 99 1/2
100 do. N. O. City Bank, 101 1/2

New-York Elections.—The charter elections in New-York commenced on the 14th and continue three days. Parties are arrayed for "deadly conflict," and to judge from the reports a tremendous contest may be anticipated. The result is looked for with anxiety, as the advance of the bank interests, if the bank boxes in against them, there, they can have no further hope for hope.

Judge White, of Tequenos, has disclaimed in the senate, all knowledge and approbation of any plan of a bank, to be submitted by Mr. Calhoun. The Judge went further, and in the Washington correspondent of a New-York paper says, "took the most ultra-conservative grounds, assumed by Mr. Wright and to their utmost extent. He concluded, the arguments of Mr. Calhoun, addressed to those who deemed the bank unconstitutional." Judge White goes against any national bank whatever. The authority of such a man, four-tenths, upon such a subject, a host of Webster, Clay, and Calhoun, so says the Richmond Enquirer.

"From my quiet's day at home."

Pray where you are.

The editor of the Bulletin has found a "dread new-comer," which superintends the belief, notwithstanding what he intimated to the contrary, that it has never been born. He has so tickled with his good fortune, remembering probably the French proverb, "that a good gift does not always fall to a good dog," that he is obliged to make the thing public, and has so far succeeded in his modesty from being put to the brash, fallen to a device to affect the purpose, but which was easily discerned that it can only be seen through.

He is obliged to think that the collar, though "brave now," has been doffed off by one of the faithful of our party. Now, however, how can he suppress this? Come, let him be candid, and confess that this badge of allegiance has been sent in testimony of his abject devotion to the interests of those in whose service he has been laboring with so much zeal and earnestness, for the last six months. As his claims have been so singularly acknowledged, he must live in hopes of being gratified with some bons, bons, from the Philadelphia manufactory, or the branch here. We shall be gratified with the news of his safe arrival in this country, and I hope he will bring the story of the lion's walk and the fat pig up, amidst honest independence for no neighbour.

The Wilmington (Del.) Journal, of the 23d ult., says: "We have heard, intimated, that if the Girard bank throw in the leopards, the Farmer's bank, in Wilmington, will be elected in its place, as the public monies, and we believe, there is good ground for the intimation."

From the Lancashire Advertiser.

The club assembled again on Friday evening, with the view to complete their work of destruction, and to wreak their vengeance upon the persons accused of being guilty of some very serious outrages. But the authorities were on the watch, the alarm was given, and a part of the Legion and the U.S. troops were sent to the scene of the fielded action. Mr. Holland, dignified sheriff, rode out to meet the crowd, which soon dispersed, and was perfectly satisfied with the conduct of his officers.

Our contemporary is informed in regard to what it states in the latter portion of the foregoing. None of the slaves, so far as we have been able to learn, from the best information we can obtain, are bound. As we are all of us, and we believe, there is good ground for the intimation.

A voluminous memoir of "Miranda," is about to be issued at Paris, edited by his adopted son, from original documents. The late work of Dumont has only whetted the public appetite for authentic anecdotes of the life career and opinions of the remarkable man.

From the Lancashire Advertiser.

The club assembled again on Friday evening, with the view to complete their work of destruction, and to wreak their vengeance upon the persons accused of being guilty of some very serious outrages. But the authorities were on the watch, the alarm was given, and a part of the Legion and the U.S. troops were sent to the scene of the fielded action. Mr. Holland, dignified sheriff, rode out to meet the crowd, which soon dispersed, and was perfectly satisfied with the conduct of his officers.

Our contemporary is informed in regard to what it states in the latter portion of the foregoing. None of the slaves, so far as we have been able to learn, from the best information we can obtain, are bound. As we are all of us, and we believe, there is good ground for the intimation.

On Saturday evening, he said in saying that the book could not leave Pennsylvania, and herewith, with his usual impetuosity, will once more be in progress.

On Saturday evening, he said in saying that the book could not leave Pennsylvania, and herewith, with his usual impetuosity, will once more be in progress.

Lafayette had assumed an alarming character, but this morning we have had the satisfaction of learning at his house that he is much better.

CITY COUNCIL.

(Reported for the Bee.)

The proceedings of the last meeting having been read, Mr. Schmidt moved that a committee be named to verify the elections of the 7th inst.

This motion was adopted.—Messrs. Buisson, Hubbard, and Schmidt were appointed, as members of said committee.

The Secretary having read a letter from Judge Bernier, of the 4th Ward, protesting against the election of Mr. Agius.

M. Schmidt moved that the same be referred to a special committee. He thought, that as the status of the committee upon election ceased at the end of the sitting, it would be improper, to refer to them a question that might last for several weeks.

This motion being adopted, Messrs. Schmidt, Dixon and Marigny were named members of this committee.

M. Montfort moved 3 res.—granted.

The Committee having again met, Mr. Schmidt proposed a report from the committee upon elections, declaring that the following gentlemen had been duly elected for their several weeks:

Meiss, Schmidt & Pritchard, for the 1st; Mr. Dawson, for the 2nd; Mr. Agius, for the 4th; Mr. Montfort, for the 5th; Mr. Marigny, for the 6th; Mr. Dixon, for the 7th; and Mr. Buisson, for the 8th.

It was thereupon ordered by the committee that these gentlemen take their seats as Vice-Chairmen.

The Reverend Mr. Gilbertson, then rose and addressed the Council in substance as follows:

Gentlemen—I do not believe that the rules of the Council permit me, before you begin to deliberate on the subject, to speak to you, except as respects the election of the new Council, for they have morally allotted me to the election of the members of the Grand Purchaser of Men and Votes in Philadelphia.

We have Paris' list of papers by the ships Olympia and Napoleon to the 13th ult. They have been anticipated by later dates received at New-York, and we find no additional particulars which may be deemed important. Their general tenor goes to corroborate the belief that the liberal cause was likely to triumph in Spain, and that Don Miguel would finally be overthrown.

Among the extracts we have made it will be seen, that the venerable patriot Lafayette, the pride and boast of the two continents, was in danger for a sickness. It gives us pleasure, however, to see by the following extract of a letter, from the Pennsylvania Intelligencer, that the statement we publish is somewhat exaggerated, and that the General was convalescent:

"All is quiet here. General Lafayette who took a heavy cold at the funeral, is going on foot to Paris to Ghent, is getting better and is in fact nearly well."

Claims on France for Subsidies.—We perceive by the Baltimore Advertiser, that the period for the execution of the Convention with France for subsidies on account of supplies for American volunteers will be prolonged in consequence of an arrangement made between the two governments through the medium of our minister at Paris. The distribution of the funds payable by France will take place immediately at the receipt; and there is reason, we are given to understand, as well from the disposition of the present French chamber of deputies, as from the state of our relations with that country, to deem that the amount of the first instalment will be speedily rendered available.

The report and resolutions of the committee of ways and means in the national house of representatives, upon the 15th ult., it is probable, was finally disposed of last week on a call for the previous question. Our Washington correspondents give the following extract of a letter, from the 15th ult., "Some fair business transaction, which might appear fatal to those and immediately interest me, might come to light." "A word to the wise," &c. etc.

Sales at the N. Y. Stock Exchange, March 31.

100 shares U. S. Bank, 104
100 do. N. O. Canal Bank, 99 1/2
100 do. N. O. City Bank, 101 1/2

New-York Elections.—The charter elections in New-York commenced on the 14th and continue three days. Parties are arrayed for "deadly conflict," and to judge from the reports a tremendous contest may be anticipated. The result is looked for with anxiety, as the advance of the bank interests, if the bank boxes in against them, there, they can have no further hope for hope.

Judge White, of Tequenos, has disclaimed in the senate, all knowledge and approbation of any plan of a bank, to be submitted by Mr. Calhoun. The Judge went further, and in the Washington correspondent of a New-York paper says, "took the most ultra-conservative grounds, assumed by Mr. Wright and to their utmost extent. He concluded, the arguments of Mr. Calhoun, addressed to those who deemed the bank unconstitutional." Judge White goes against any national bank whatever. The authority of such a man, four-tenths, upon such a subject, a host of Webster, Clay, and Calhoun, so says the Richmond Enquirer.

"From my quiet's day at home."

Pray where you are.

The editor of the Bulletin has found a "dread new-comer," which superintends the belief, notwithstanding what he intimated to the contrary, that it has never been born. He has so tickled with his good fortune, remembering probably the French proverb, "that a good gift does not always fall to a good dog," that he is obliged to make the thing public, and has so far succeeded in his modesty from being put to the brash, fallen to a device to affect the purpose, but which was easily discerned that it can only be seen through.

He is obliged to think that the collar, though "brave now," has been doffed off by one of the faithful of our party. Now, however, how can he suppress this? Come, let him be candid, and confess that this badge of allegiance has been sent in testimony of his abject devotion to the interests of those in whose service he has been laboring with so much zeal and earnestness, for the last six months. As his claims have been so singularly acknowledged, he must live in hopes of being gratified with some bons, bons, from the Philadelphia manufactory, or the branch here. We shall be gratified with the news of his safe arrival in this country, and I hope he will bring the story of the lion's walk and the fat pig up, amidst honest independence for no neighbour.

The Wilmington (Del.) Journal, of the 23d ult., says: "We have heard, intimated, that if the Girard bank throw in the leopards, the Farmer's bank, in Wilmington, will be elected in its place, as the public monies, and we believe, there is good ground for the intimation."

From the Lancashire Advertiser.

The club assembled again on Friday evening, with the view to complete their work of destruction, and to wreak their vengeance upon the persons accused of being guilty of some very serious outrages. But the authorities were on the watch, the alarm was given, and a part of the Legion and the U.S. troops were sent to the scene of the fielded action. Mr. Holland, dignified sheriff, rode out to meet the crowd, which soon dispersed, and was perfectly satisfied with the conduct of his officers.

Our contemporary is informed in regard to what it states in the latter portion of the foregoing. None of the slaves, so far as we have been able to learn, from the best information we can obtain, are bound. As we are all of us, and we believe, there is good ground for the intimation.

A voluminous memoir of "Miranda," is about to be issued at Paris, edited by his adopted son, from original documents. The late work of Dumont has only whetted the public appetite for authentic anecdotes of the life career and opinions of the remarkable man.

From the Lancashire Advertiser.

The club assembled again on Friday evening, with the view to complete their work of destruction, and to wreak their vengeance upon the persons accused of being guilty of some very serious outrages. But the authorities were on the watch, the alarm was given, and a part of the Legion and the U.S. troops were sent to the scene of the fielded action. Mr. Holland, dignified sheriff, rode out to meet the crowd, which soon dispersed, and was perfectly satisfied with the conduct of his officers.

Our contemporary is informed in regard to what it states in the latter portion of the foregoing. None of the slaves, so far as we have been able to learn, from the best information we can obtain, are bound. As we are all of us, and we believe, there is good ground for the intimation.

On Saturday evening, he said in saying that the book could not leave Pennsylvania, and herewith, with his usual impetuosity, will once more be in progress.

Lafayette had assumed an alarming character, but this morning we have had the satisfaction of learning at his house that he is much better.

It was reported yesterday that the information of General Lafayette had assumed an alarming character, but this morning we have had the satisfaction of learning at his house that he is much better.

It was reported yesterday that the information of General Lafayette had assumed an alarming character, but this morning we have had the satisfaction of learning at his house that he is much better.

It was reported yesterday that the information of General Lafayette had assumed an alarming character, but this morning we have had the satisfaction of learning at his house that he is much better.

It was reported yesterday that the information of General Lafayette had assumed an alarming character, but this morning we have had the satisfaction of learning at his house that he is much better.

It was reported yesterday that the information of General Lafayette had assumed an alarming character, but this morning we have had the satisfaction of learning at his house that he is much better.

It was reported yesterday that the information of General Lafayette had assumed an alarming character, but this morning we have had the satisfaction of learning at his house that he is much better.

It was reported yesterday that the information of General Lafayette had assumed an alarming character, but this morning we have had the satisfaction of learning at his house that he is much better.