POSTPONEMENT.

THE STUDY OF YEARS Reduced to AS MANY HOURS

W. C. DUTHRIE, the young writing master and teacher of stenography in six lessons, Academy 15 rue st corner of Conti and Chartres street, New Orleans.

In acquainting the [illegible] of numerous families to engage as pupils, amongst whom many applied the first week, he found not be received in consequence [illegible] of the small size of the Academy. With a view of removing the regret of the applicants on that occasion, as well as to give an opportunity once more to the citizens generally, he will, by recent arrangements continue to receive pupils until the 26th of May next.

Those who have enrolled as pupils, and those who may be [illegible] hereafter, will be [illegible] at the above date,—as may after will be solely for the purpose of completing such as will engage in the present specified time.

"The example of wise men is visible philosophy."

Upon that data I call attention to the advantages derived by both sexes, old and young, from instruction. Thus, a beautiful, free, expeditious and permanent style of writing, applicable to every purpose of life and business, is taught to every person who comes forward, even the meanest capacity, in six lessons only, of one hour each. Short Hand in Six Lessons.

Terms continue at half the usual price, that is instead of $17 50, it is but $8 75. So, well may one exclaim, better late than never!

Pupils received day and evening. ☞Ladies on their respective days as usual. a 30

J. R. PUTNAM, DENTIST,

RESPECTFULLY informs the public that he has removed to the house recently occupied by Dr. Ker, at the corner of Canal and Royal streets, over the Post Office, (entrance No. 6, Royal street,) where he may be found from 9 o'clock, A. M. until 5 P. M., ready to attend to the duties of his profession, and where he invites those who wish to employ or consult him to call, as it is impossible for him to leave his rooms during those hours, except in cases of indisposition. He has rooms for the accommodation of his visitors, separate and distinct from his family apartments, where they can be entirely private during the performance of an operation, or whilst waiting for his services, should he be at the time engaged. His charges will be such as are sanctioned by the usages of his profession and will not be deviated from except for persons of limited means, or where families are to be attended to, then a reasonable deduction will be made. As he has no assistant in his business, and as it is expected that he will be found always in his rooms, it must be obvious to all, that it is impossible for him to keep books and attend personally to the collection of his bills; he therefore respectfully solicits those who receive his services to make settlement at the time, or attend to it as soon as convenient to themselves, as he has given offence to some by presenting his accounts through another person employed for that purpose. It is expected that punctuality will be strictly observed where positive engagements are made, or an excuse furnished in time, as a neglect to do this may subject others who have made engagements to disappointment and him to loss and inconvenience. Those indebted for services rendered during the last season, will oblige him by calling and paying their bills. nov 29
