THE BEE.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED DAILY BY JEROME BAYON.

STATE PRINTER.

THE UNION—IT MUST BE PRESERVED.

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 12, 1834.

We are authorized to announce JAMES BRADFORD, of Pelicans, as a candidate for Congress for the Second District.

A. PICHOT Esq. is a candidate for Alderman of the fifth Ward, in the place of J. Agassi, resigned.

The northern mail of yesterday brings nothing of the slightest interest.

It will be seen by referring to our Washington lead, the Congress is again in session.

We have Mexican files of papers to a late date, but we find nothing of moment in them.

We are informed that the water works committee of the Commercial Bank, having made a contract for raising a canal on the square purchased for that purpose, in sulphur Avenue, the first load of earth will be deposited upon it, to-day at half past five, P. M.

As it has been thought proper, that the commencement of so important a work, should be accompanied with a military ceremony; a procession upwards of our hundred carts destined to be employed in the transportation of the earth will more from the principal at 5 o'clock, P. M.

The governor and other principal officers of the state, and the mayor and city council, have been invited to be present on an occasion so interesting to all who desire the prosperity of our city, and we are requested to inform the citizens generally, to join this procession in cart and carts, which will be provided for the military company, Mr. Pitt's motion was rejected.

Mr. Dixon then moved that the resolution be adopted, together with the motion of Mr. Pitt.

Mr. Schmidt demanded the reading of the report upon the same, and it was ordered that it be read.

The motion having been read, Mr. Richmon moved to make some observations, but it was remanded by the Pres. but upon the question, that the only question before the assembly was the adoption or rejection of the resolution.
