FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 27, 1534. We are authorized, to announce JAMES BRADFORD. Feliciana, as a candidate for Coupress for the Second Dis

REPUBLICAN MEETING.

The friends of Judge DAWSON are informed, that or Saturday Best the 28th inst. at 7.0 clock, P.M. a general meeting will be held at Davis's Ball' Room, Orleans street for the purpose of forming a General Ticket for the next logicative. All the supporters of General Dawson are recuested to attend.

The United States Senate have confirmed the nomination of H. D. Perne as Surveyor, and Craus Brancer as Ap praiser of the Customs for this District

The opponents of Judge Dawson make a dead set agains his talents and qualifications, and assail his pretensions b urging in a variety of different forms a set of frivolous and He triding objections. At one time they hold him in the most uti r contempt, and then he may well exclaim in the language of the poer: ne poer: "On me when such men are satirick,

"Like it for panegyrick."

At another, they show their apprehension of his strength, and vary their attack, charging him with nullification, and other unpopular doctrines, with a view of blasting his prospects: and so on to the end of the chapter. The heauty of all this is, that they never substantiale their charges, but go on from murderers. one to the other with astonishing rapidity. It is in this way they care their credit and attempt to impose upon the good somes of the prople of the state.

The Louisiana calls a letter of General Dawson upon the for its ments as a piece of composition. Query? Is it worse than White's colebrated speech on the sugar question? If it is, let our conditione hide his diminished head!

It is amusing to see the buzzing of the little pandescript of the Louisiana. In his paper of yesterday, he complains, that some scoundred belonging to the Dawson party, to prevent the propogation of truth and correct principles," as he hasit, resorts, to "the dirty trick" of "daily" tearing his paper from the reading room at Hewlett's Exchange. It strikes us as somewhat curious that now friend of Dayso should be so silly as to do so, when there is positive evidence that so far from the "leaden" articles in the Louisiana being of disservice to our cause they operate decidedly in our favour. Had we the ability, as much as we have the desilion, we should subscribe for a sufficient, pupiler of conto circulate through every village and hamlet in the state convinced that we would not be doing a greater service to only called the convince of the conv

FINALE OF THE DEPOSITE QUESTION. We learn from the Washington Globe, that Mr. Clay's resolutions, the one, declaring the reasons of the Secretary insufficient for removing the Deposites-the other directing their restoration; were nailed to the table of the House of Representatives on the 13th inst. by a most decisive vote. This was a most contemptuous mode of disposing of Mr. Clay's grand stroke of policy, which he supposed was a sure triumph after the distructions of the Speaker's election. The vote, against the resolution impugning the Secretary's recsons, stood 114 to 102. That against the retoring resolution

Sin:—I can while pain, that the Argus and the Renard Democrat, have entirely misrepresented a slight difficulty which took place, at M. Lassassier's (formerly a member of the House of Representatives of this State, from the Parish of Herville,) between myself and Mr. J. B. Every thing that has been a sted, is atterly folser and the brother of the editor of the Ronard Dimoorat, will, I hope he just enough to say, that he was not authorized in any manner whatever by the individuals, whose names he has caused to be placed in the columns of that paper.

If he should still perist in it, I will take every name with the exception of a few, from that paper, (for he has mentioned some hast were not present at the time,) that will contradict his assertions. After that, will drop him, and far from being his chemy, I'll give him this last advice, "never to estacet the attention of the public to such scharacter as his, which will prove pass without causer, only when it passes without observation."

The brother of the editor of the Board Damocral, remarking the first of the said letter, because, it would aid the election of Mr. White, and that if White was elected, instituted in the state of the said letter, because, it would aid the election of Mr. White, and that if White was elected, instituted in the said letter, because, it would not the cleaning the last says of the said letter, because, it would not the cleaning that his expect the said letter, because, it would aid the cleaning that his expect it by two respectable inhabitants, who also brond him says for the based and the last and the said letter, because it would not the cleaning the last and that it would and the cleaning that him says for the based and head heads and head heads and heads are not set to the said letter, because it would not head and heads and heads and heads and heads are not set to the said letter, because it would not head and head

To the exclusion of much original matter on the subject of the gubernatorial election in this State, we have tilled ou the gubernatorial election in this State, we have fined our columns of to-day, with the pertinent remarks of Messis Sourle and Hannen, and other proceedings of the great Dawson Democrat Meeting in New Orleans.

The sentiments uttered in Orleans street on Saturday evening, the 7th instant, will find a hearty response in the boson of every patriot throughout Louisana—the Italy of America—the fairest of 24th gene assers. Such men—and such only as Jone B. Dawson, of old West Februana are morthly to be rulers of this State, the alen of the Western worthy to be rulers of this State, the eden of the Western Hemisphere.—Ibid.

Died, at his residence in this Parish, on the 18th instant, after a protracted and painful illness. Col. Levi Foctza, in the 38th year of his age; lamented by a large and respectable. family, and a numerous concourse of friends and acquain inces. In the death of Col. Foster, the Parish has sustained an irreparable loss. His character, abuttes, and patr of sin, pro-cured for him the confidence of the people, and he was seve-ral times returned to the Legislature of this State. And al-though he does not appear to have acted a very conspicuous part in the proceedings of our Legislature, he was neverthes could write su less a useful member.

The adjournment of Congress is now near at hand, but we rely confidently upon the passage of the gold bult, and be-ieve that the friends of the measure will not suffer thouselve-to be mystified, and bewildered in a chansof calculations, and wilderness of fractions; but well council the point at one; greed in by Mr. Sanferd. Mr. Whee, and Mr. Ingham, that ess than 16 to 1 will not retain gold in general and perminent circulation, and that proportion for the basis of all there.

More Bank management .-- Mr. Biddle has recently issued B. More Hank management.—Alt. Biddle has recently issued his mandate to the officers of the different Branches of the United States Bank, directing them to require weekly settlements with the local hanks, and it was attempted, it seems, to have been carried into effect in New York: but upon the remonstrance of the merchants who perceived the bad consequences which would be likely to result from it, and as it was by no means necessary, the officers have refused to was by no means necessary, the officers have refused to comply with the order. Upon the fact being stated that such an order had been issued, one of the Bank presses in Philadelphia, seeing the effect it might be expected to have upon the Bank, undertook to deny or doubt the truth of the statement. We can however, inform the editor, that with regard to Baltimore, there is no doubt about the fact, and we are informed that on Saturday last they curried the direction to such in extent, as to require the payment of balances down to cents. It can hardly he necessary to comment upon such conduct to show that the Bank is actuated by a desire to create all the difficulty, distress, and confusion in the country that less in its power. If it did not demand those frequent settlements, they would not be required by the other banks, and they would be enabled to be more liberal in their accommodations than are now either safe or practicable; but when they are thus called upon by that institution, they are compelled in self-defence, to pursue a similar course, and consequently a continual runlupon each other, which cannot fail to be attended with the worst consequences to them and the public generally must follow. It would really seem as if either Mr. Biddle had really got beside himself, or was endeavouring to show the utmost extent of his ability in creations. ling evil, and of trying the patience of the community, and the attachment and faith of the friends of the institution.

Do not think that I suppose the Tories better than the Whigs. Why, I perceive you anticipate me. The reason is this: The Whigs are a whining, whimpering, hypocritical set of knaves and political secondrels—who, like saintly thieves at field presching, turn up the white of their eyes to heaven, to induce others to look the same way, while they pick the pockets of the jdevout congregation. But they will get into a passion if you tall them this, and they will ask you, did we not cast the tories out of office, and give you parliamentary reform? Unfortunately, the truth was all the other way—you it was that reformed the parliament, which put them into the pieces which they hold and disgrace. But I may be asked, did you not vote for it. at the corner of Canal and Royal streets, over Office, (entrance No. 6, Royal street,) where he may be found from 2 o'clock, A. M. until 5 P. M., roady to attend to the duties of his profussion, and where he invites those who wish to employ or consult him to call, as it is impossible for him to leave his rooms during those hours, except in cases of indisposition. He has rooms for the accommo dation of his visiters, separate and distinct from his family apartments, where they can be entirely private during the performance of an operation, or whilst waiting for his serrices should be be at the time engaged. His charges will be such as are sanctioned by the usages of his profession and will not be deviated from except for persons of limited means, or where families are to be attended to, then a reasomable deduction will be made. As he has no assistant in his business, and as it is expected that he will be found always in his rooms, it must be obvious to all, that it is impossible for him to keep books and attend personally to the collection of his bills; he therefore respectfully solicits those who receive his services to make neutronent at the time, or attend to it as soon as convenient to themselves, as he has given offence to some by presenting his accounts through another person camployed for that purpose. It is expected that punctuality will be strictly observed where positive engagements are made, or an excusa farmished in positive engagements are made, or an excuss termined to time, as a neglect to do this may, subject others who have made engagements to disappointment and him to loss and inconveniences. These indebted for services rendered du-ring the last season, will oblige him by calling and paying their bills.
