THE BEE.

Published daily by JEROME HAYON. THE UNION—IT MUST BE PRESERVED. MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 30, 1834.

We are authorized to announce JAMES BRADFORD, of Orleans, as a candidate for Congress for the Second District.

Much original matter prepared for this day's paper has been unavoidably postponed to give place to the proceedings of the meeting on Saturday, and the address of Mr. Soule.

The Mail of yesterday failed beyond Mobile. Today has been fixed by both houses of Congress for its adjournment. After all the boating on the part of the Senators Sunday evening last, they are about to disembark to the will of the people as expressed through the medium of their representatives.

THE CITY IS WITH US—HUZZA!! GREAT MEETING. In pursuance of previous notice, a meeting of the Democratic Journal, the friends of J. B. Dawson assembled on Monday evening last.

FOR GOVERNOR, JOHN B. DAWSON. FOR REPRESENTATIVE TO CONGRESS, CHARLES GAYARRE. FOR THE SENATE, BERNARD MARIGNY.

Committees of vigilance were thereupon appointed, the names of whom will be found on our French list. A vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Davis for the use of his room, and the meeting upon adjourned.

Our stenographer's task is a difficult one, in consequence of the rapidity of Mr. Soule's delivery. We have, however, managed to embody the substance of his address, and we send it to our readers with the few breaks in the narrative which our reporter...

Darkness, spreading contagion far and wide, which the more wary traveler cannot avoid. It is the pestilence arising from the miasmata of the Louisiana streets...

DISASTER.—The barque Poacher, Frigate, 31 days from New Orleans, arrived before Providence on a Friday. Some eight hundred men, and a large quantity of goods, were on board, and were all safely landed...

CHARLOTTE, June 19. The David Brown met going into New York the packet ship of Ochs, Capt. Cobb, at the 15th May from Liverpool with which she had communication.

THE MONEY MARKET, says the New York Daily Advertiser of the 19th inst. is such as it has been. There is a great pressure on the market. The Banks discount at 10 per cent. for a short time, and at 12 per cent. for a longer period.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE BEE: Sir—You are authorized to offer through your paper a list of $500 that John B. Dawson will be elected to the Chief of the State at the election in July next.

COMMERCIAL.

From Let's Price Current of June 23. The market remains near the same state, notwithstanding the heavy rain, but the weather generally has been clear, pleasant, for the season, and very favorable to business of all kinds.
