The schr Olive Branch, Lightburn, from Savannah to New Orieans, was capaized oil the Tortugas, on the 9-h inst in a sodden squall from the North West, and immediately fitted. The crew had great difficulty in cutting the boat admit, which was so batly stove that they were compelled to remain on the bottom of the wreck, during which time two slaves, (the property of Mr G B Lamer, of Savan msh) were washed from the wreck and drowned; no asset since could be afforded to them. At 9 a m next morning, they left the wreck with six persons in the boat, thinking it not prudent to remain any longer—the sea breaking over and not prudeat to remain any longer—the sea breaking over and she serting last—the boat leaking badry.—Thirriday inorm ing, Mr. Donbar, of Augusta, Georgia, died.
