s dyes authorised to take any part in it, or obtrude our advice upon the good people of that section as to whom they should onese, regarding such conduct on our part as highly gratuttous, indecorous and improper. It was with these feelings, that we inhintained a strict silence, leaving unanswered seversi articles in the Louisiana Advertiser, in which the pret : tions of Judge Chinn, the Bank candidate were advanced, concerning not but that our motives would be apparent, and that proper justice would be done by those concerned to the serrect interierence of our neighbor. But now that the ton is over, and that a choice has been made, we feel as ly s transgressing no rule of decorum in speaking of at chance. General Rigley who has been selected, enjoys t - : putation of a stern and uncompromising democrat, is a and th'ents and singleness of purpose, and is enimently to fied to discharge at this important and interesting crisis national existence, the trust which the partiallities of had diow crizens have invested him with. Mr. TARRY .- A morning contemporary indulges in some very illiberal and insulting remarks in relation to this gent. man, a purer partiet or a better man than whom does at ave. In the joundiced eye of our neighbor, whoever ires oppose the United States Bank is "a villain," and a "autor," deserving of the most invedicus recrimination and areas. Mr. Taney stants guilty of this grievous field, and rence arises the nicessity of sacrificing him to the fury of that a solgat monopoly; a necessity which its advocates by to the very letter, judging from their newspaper escay. in i public speeches.

But what say those who know Mr. Tahey best, his im mediate consuments and fellow citizens? We find them ma a festing their respect for his talents and character by regeiv ing him with the in ret distinguished honor. A dinner was ten lered him in Bultimore, his native city, immediately on his arrival there, at which not less than 1500, of the most respeciable citizens, were present. Would such men as these consort with "a villion" or a "traitor," and render him those believe if and this very fact in itself, had we no other testimony would be sufficient to show the purity and rectifude of head of the property of the propert L s political career.

A hint very suitable for our own Meridian .- At a public dinner given to Mr. Patton, of Virgininia, by the citizens of news from America. Orange county, in that State, Judge Barbour having been in vited to attend, forwarded an answer, assigning his reasons for declining the invitation; the principal of which is, tha he considers it improper for Judges to mingle in party meetmys and political contests. His views upon this subject wis be approved by the great mass of the community, and it would be well for the country, and add to their own reputation for honesty and wisdom, if some others, who occupy seats upon the bench, would act in accordance with those

To the Editor of the Bee. The subject of the Bank of the United States has been so much discussed in relation to the removal of the deporsites, as almost to become a subject of induscrence.

This, however, is the time when we have to look for a development of the transactions of this institution, and as they are disclosed, to determine in what relation the removal of the deposites and the discress of the country stood to each other. We were all satisfied, that a simple removal across a
