FRANCE. Paris, July 19.—The substitution of Marshal Gerard for Marshal Soult in the Ministry of War, and in the Presidency of the council, has taken place. This event, long foreseen, would, it was well known to every body, but Marshal Soult himself, inflexibly take place after the election...

The elevation of a liberal and independent man, such as, for example, as Marshal Clausel, to the dignity of President of the Council, is an important matter; for swaggering despots, though they be crowned, are never theless contrived to imbibe or attain principles of liberty...

It begins to appear probable that the merely formal opening of the Chambers on the 31st inst. as the King hoped and intended it should be, will lead to the despatch, at least discussion of important matters. Ere the fate of the first attempts of Don Carlos in Spain will be known, and the intervention or non intervention of France and England will have been decided on.
