ACADEMIES.

POSSIBLE PAINTING.
No Art is so important as the study of the human figure. No study is so profitable in the declining period of life. Many, however, are discouraged in their first attempt, and relinquish the art as unprofitable, but after a few lessons in the French style, they are given an inclination to pursue the art. The effect may be difficult at first, but the difficulty will be easily overcome, and the gratification of the student will be great.

The artist's method of applying them are entirely new. In point of color the painting much resembles a fine engraving in brilliancy and tendency of colors, in composition all conception of the former style, but the greater expression it possesses over the ordinary method, that a knowledge of it may be acquired in a very short time, even by those who possess no taste in drawing, and no knowledge of the use of the pencil.

Mr. DE LOE LIEB, Teacher of the new style of painting, is in the 12th lesson, respectively request those ladies who are desirous of receiving lessons at their own residence, and who are unable to call on Mr. De Loeb, to send their names, together with the address, to the Honorable the Parish Court, at the Court House, New Orleans, Louisiana. There will be no charge, but a donation of a few dollars will be made to the artist.
