cleared, fresh, and in the best state for profitable cultivation. The improvements are new, and consist of a dwelling house, negro masters, with will, with, &c &c, all deling house, negro masters. ion. The improvements are new, and consist of a dwelling house, negro quarters, gin'mill, cribs, ac acc, all designed and constructed with an eye to mility and coarenience. The sell is equal to any in the State, and the elimate remarkable for salubility and health. I would sell one half the place to a person who could put $2 or 15 hands on the premises, and who could engage to take the entire personal management of the whole, or if a suitable offer were made, I would dispose of facts or ally slaves with the stock and utensils of every description along with the stantation. The slaves are in familier, long accrewith the stock and utensile of every description along with the plantation. The slaves are in familier, long access to the climate and well acquainted with the calture of cotton—They are mostly young, and necessarily healthy. To New Origans there is navigation most of the year and at all times by a few miles healting. The datance by water about one health and trenty miles. It is my first wish to sell the plantation alone, or he obtain a partner by selling one helf, who would also be the manager; and, leastly, I would sell the whole to a good purchaser, and the terms made accommodating.

It had he pleased to shew the property and to seement exist the conditions on the progness, or I would rafer to WE Thompson, or Arthur H wellace, Eq., New Orleans Holly Wood, let October 1834.
