CARSTARIAN SYSTEM OF WRITING.—Messrs Dolbear and Brothers, respectfully give notice that those Ladies who prefer receiving lessons at their residence, should commence before the 1st of May, as no lessons will be given this season, after that time, excepting at their Writing Academy, which will be opened until the 1st of June. Hours of attendance for Ladies at the Academy, no 8 Chartres street, from 12 to 1 o'clock.—Those Gentlemen who would wish to acquire an elegant and rapid business style of writing, and have not time during the day, are informed that they will have evening classes until May. All who attend their establishment have an opportunity to take lessons until they write sufficiently well for any business where rapidity and elegance are required. feb 28

New Orleans, 12th May, 1834.

On the invitation of Mr Dolbear, a teacher of Penmanship in our city, upon the Carstairan system: we have carefully examined specimens of the writings of his pupils, whose ages range from 8 to 50 years, written through a entire course of instruction; and after having done so, it is with the highest satisfaction that we can testify to the RAPID if not UNPARALLELED progress which they had made.

From the specimens seen, and the examination of the system made, we cannot withhold the expression of a decent opinion, that the system is greatly superior to any hitherto taught. If to write legibly, elegantly, rapidly and in good taste be an accomplishment, useful or desirable, it is upon the principles of this system that it is to be acquired. We therefore anxiously solicit of the public a liberal patronage in favor of an instructor, whose qualifications are of the highest order, and whose labors promise to be exceedingly useful to this and other communities.

EXHIBITION OF

INDIAN PORTRAITS.

AT 78 CHARTRES STREET.

MR CATLIN, who has been for 5 years past, traversing the prairies of the "Far West," and procuring the PORTRAITS of the most distinguished Indians of those uncivilized regions, together with paintings of their Villages, Buffalo Hunts, Dances, Landscapes of the country, &c. will endeavor to entertain the citizens of New Orleans for a few days, with an exhibition of 200 portraits and other paintings which he has collected from 37 different tribes, speaking different languages, all of whom he has been among, and painted his pictures from life.

PORTRAITS OF "BLACK HAWK," and nine of his principal Warriors, are amongst the number painted at Jefferson Barracks, while prisoners of war, in their war dress and war paint. Also, four paintings, representing the annual

RELIGIOUS CEREMONY OF THE MANDANS,

Doing penance by inflicting the most cruel tortures upon their own bodies—passing knives and splints through their flesh, and suspending their bodies by their wounds, &c.—A series of Thirty Landscape Views.

Descriptive of the picturesque scenery of the Upper Missouri, and a series of twelve together with some splendid specimens of Costume, will also be exhibited.

The great interest of this collection, consists in its being a representation of the wildest tribes of Indians in America, and entirely in their NATIVE HABITS and COSTUMES—consisting of Sioux, Pawnahs, Konzas, Shiennes, Crows, Ojibbaways, Assinneboins; Mandans, Crees, Black-Feet Snakes, Mahas, Pawnees, Ottoes, Ioways, Flat Heads Weahs, Peorias, Sacks, Foxes, Minatarrees, Rickarees Osagees, Camanches, Wicos, Pawnee-picts, Kioways and others.

In order to render the exhibition more instructive than it could otherwise be, the paintings will be exhibited one at a time, and such explanations of their dress, customs, traditions, &c. given by Mr Catlin, as will enable the public to form a just idea of the customs, numbers and condition of the savages yet in a state of nature in North America.

The exhibition and Lecture will commence on Wednesday evening, 25th inst. at 7 o'clock, and be repeated for several succeeding evenings; and it is hoped that visitors will be in and seated as near the hour as possible, that they may see the whole collection as they are passed over.

Price of admission, $1 00; children half price.

OPIATA BALSAMICA,

DEL. DR. GUERRERO.

THIS OPIATA, a recent discovery, is a certain safe and convenient remedy for that species of disease called Gomorrhœa or Gleet. Its reputation has been generally established in South America, and has commanded the written testimonials of the Medical Faculty of that section of the Globe, relative to the speedy and infallible results which have attended its application to all cases of Gomorrhœa.

The OPIATA BALSAMICA is put up in small leaden pots, accompanied with directions, and may be conveniently carried in the pocket, both by persons travelling, and by those who may wish to avoid exposure, either to a physician or to their friends.

It is in the form of an agreeable paste, and is taken in such a manner as to render it "tasteless," by being wrapped up in a wafer pr pared for that purpose, a sufficient number of which will be delivered with the medicine. But the greatest advantage which it possesses, is, that it invariably produces a radical cure of the disease in a few days, without affecting the most delicate constitution, owing to its containing the slightest particle of mercury in its composition.

Before the Agent would offer it to the public in this country, he has had its efficacy tested by several of the most respectable physicians in the city of New York Their success has fully justified the declaration, that it is the best medicine they ever used, and they have in consequence, generously consented to be referred to as to the truth of this statement.

Price—each pot, one dollar and a half. It is sold by the subscribers, chemical druggists, sole agents for the remedy in Louisiana. CUSACH & Co,

WOODVILLE ACADEMY,

AT THE ENGLISH TURN.

THE undersigned, for many years past given to the instruction of youth in the city of New Orleans, and since two years employed by the state in the parish of Plaquemines as a public teacher, desirous of rendering himself more useful, has the honor of informing the public that he has established in the aforesaid parish, a country academy for boarders of both sexes.

His main design is to prepare his young pupils to enter colleges in order to pursue their studies on a larger scale, and to perfectionate themselves with the sciences. The great success he has obtained until now in his preparatory classes and the general satisfaction he has given to the parents who honor him with their confidence, induces him to hope that the emission of this Prospectus, will be kindly received by a liberal public and deserve its attention.

Every thing concurs with the prosperity of this institution; its delightful and healthy situation, surrounded on all sides by vast fields in culture, the facility of procuring the immediate attendance of a physician, whose property adjoins the undersigned's institution. The distance from the city being only 5 leagues, affords to parents means of having daily views of their children and of watching their progress.

Another advantage to be derived from this academy, is that it being composed mostly of pupils of French extraction, it affords to American students who might come to it the great benefit of becoming familiar with the French tongue, of seizing with facility its pronunciation and smoothing those difficulties which it creates in a more advanced age.

A motherly attention to the children will be given by the wife of the undersigned.

The languages taught, are, viz: the French, English and Spanish, reading, writing, arithmetic, modern geography, demonstrated on the map, The grammar of the aforesaid languages explained thoroughly, sacred and profane history; an instruction of the principal dogmas of religion will take place twice a week.

Boarding and tuition at $150 per annum, payable per quarter, and always in advance, a quarter once begun is paid in full. Books are furnished by the institution and forms a separate account.

Each pupil must bring with him a suitable wardrobe, 2 pair of sheets, 1 matrass, bedsteads furnished at $3 according to the parents will.

Persons desirous of ampler information, will please apply in the city to Messrs Thos Barrett, Simon Cucullu, J Touro, Champomier & Giraud, Oelxandre Lessepe; in this parish, to Messrs Sudge Gilberto Leonard, Armand Lanaux, Francois Dolery, Dr G C Forsyth, Oug. COAL TAR.—This useful article becoming every day more and more appreciated, many planters having proved its great virtues in keeping out water from wooden roofs, and preserving fence timber, &c. Planters, shipmasters, steamboat masters and builders, are generally informed that the New Orleans Gas works can supply every demand for the article, and at a much cheaper rate than it has usually been sold here—the expenses of importation being saved.

N.B.—Coal Tar mixed with sharp sand and a little lime makes a most excellent CEMENT for tile roofs, securing them from leakage.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ALL AMATEURS OF GOOD EATING.

IN this country, where the arts are daily making such rapid progress, the CULINARY art has hitherto been neglected—pastry, especially, has never been undertaken on an extended scale. It is true great many articles of that kind are daily imported from Europe; but the high prices asked for those delicacies, prevent great many persons from enjoying them; and what a difference in the taste will they have if prepared on the spot, and offered fresh to the consumers.

Forcibly struck with this idea, wishing to obviate to the little variety to be found in our market, especially in the forthcoming season, we have called from France one of our friends, a disciple of the celebrated COLIN, of Nantz, and with his assistants we intend to possess, on a great plan, the Culinary Art, and hope to present to families, travellers, and the public in general, all kinds of Pastry. Every Sunday there will be found at their store a great variety of turkies, large and fat pullets, venison, and all kinds of poultry, with or without truffles, &c.; the variety of good things will be such that Amateurs will be puzzled to make a choice. In the days of the week we will thankfully receive all orders for any article in our line, and beg persons who will favor us with their patronage, to give a day's notice of their commands, so as to enable us to afford them complete satisfaction. We will also undertake all public and private dinners, &c.; go out in private families, to order and prepare entertainments.
