continuous letter exclosing $25 for the benefit of the Orphant

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the New Orleans Draining Company, held on the lat June, 1835-it was unanimously agreed to adopt the following resolutions of the ultimate success of the operations of this company by persons who have not had sufficient information on the subject, have prevented a creat many from subscribing to on undertaking, in the results of which the inhabitants of the city N to w Orleans are all deeply interested; And whereas the board is of opinion that with the funds now subscribed, while a general plan of the whole work is preparing, they can, by draining a part of the lands which they are bound to reclaim; not only demonstrate the practicable his of the contemplated improvements, but also the benefits that must result therefrom to the stockholders, the proprietors of the soil and the public-therefore.

Be it resolved that the necessary means shall be taken to commence immediately the operations of the company, and that the hoard will not take into consideration the power which they have by the charter of causing the books to be reopened for subscriptions, before one section as least of the lands to be drained shall have been completely reclaimed and improved.

On the 3d of June Mr Benjamin Buisson was unanimously Sected Civil Engineer of the company.

RAIL ROAD FROM PARIS TO HAVRE.—In the Chamber of Deduties in the 2d April, the Minister of the Interior presented a bill for this purpose. Government proposed to open the projected undertaking to public competition. It was calcuriated that the road, which was to pass Dieppe, would be 56 leagues in a direct line, and 74 including the branch roads. The expense was estimated at 66 million france. It was proposed that the state should subscribe for the shares, in the undertaking in the profit of one fifth of the whole smount, and on the same conditions as the public. In the event of the ps in turning out profitably, the capital would then be employed on some other useful undertaking, or the tarific lowered.
