THE GREAT PERSIAN MAGICIAN.

Mustapha Selim El Hassan, from Ispahan, the former capital of Persia, has the pleasure to inform the inhabitants of New Orleans, that he will have the honor to appear before them every evening.

The exhibition will be opened in the spacious hall opposite the American theatre, in Camp street, over the union house.

Mustapha Selim El Hassan begs leave to ensure the ladies and gentlemen who may honor his exhibition with their presence, that they will be delighted & astonished by the numerous and mysterious experiments that will be introduced, and which have been drawn from the mysterious philosophy, chemistry, and magic of the eastern nations, many of which having been handed down from the ancient magi of Egypt and Chaldea, and which have never before been exhibited in America.

Mustapha Selim el Hassan, having travel'ed through the principal cities of Asia and Africa, and having performed before many powerful sultans, schahs, and rajahs from whom he received distinguished marks of approbation, hopes that his efforts to please will meet with the same success here that attended him in the different parts of the world.

Among the various experiments in the wonderful feats of the black art, by which he will try to astonish every beholder, he will exhibit the flight of the enchanted plume and enchanted money; the resurrection of a bird; the Turkish feat of the rabbit and rings; Egyptian pyramids; Arabian feat of the devil in his magic gown; the feat of three Bohemian witches—this feat is dedicated to the ladies; African feat of the changeable watches; the invisible glove; Arabian bottle feat, or the enchanted handkerchief; great Turkish feat of the parasol; the Chinese handkerchief feat; the devil's globe, &c, &c.

Price of admission for grown persons, 75 cents; children half price. Tickets can be obtained during the day at the bar of the union hall, and during the evenings at the entrance of the exhibition hall.

The doors will be opened at half past six, and the performance commence at half past seven o'clock, on each evening of the week.

Jean Francois Feutlie, engraver and printer on copper plates, lately arrived from France, has the honor to offer his services to the public in the city and to numerous branches. He engraves public and private seals, silver plates &c; also on copper plates bills of exchange, commercial marks, and all that relates to his art, as well as visiting cards, in the handsomest style. His prints may be either colored, gilt or silvered.

He hopes by his assiduity and the particular attention he will pay to all orders entrusted to him, to obtain the public patronage. His charges will be moderate. He has located himself for the present at his brother's lodgings, portrait painter, 164 Chartres street, between Jefferson and Toulouse streets, where he offers for sale an assortment of cut seals of all descriptions imported from Paris. dec 30—6

Carstairian system of Penmanship.—No 6 Chartres street.—Messrs. Dolbear & Brothers take pleasure in informing their friends and the public generally, that they have returned and reopened their writing establishment, and respectfully invite ladies and gentlemen to call. All those who previously commenced, and had not time to acquire as finished a style as they desired, are respectfully invited to attend without any extra charge, as they wish all persons to acquire a good and rapid business style of writing; before they consider their lessons completed. By the system a freeness of the whole arm is firstly given; secondly, a free use of the fore arm; thirdly a tournement of the fingers (which is the only movement given by the usual method); fourthly, a combination of all these movements which enable a person to write with ease, elegance and rapidity.

TO BE LEASED.

12 arpents of ground or thereabout, front on the river, by 70 arpents depth, situated in parish Jefferson, at 5 miles above the city of New Orleans, on the same side and contiguous to Carrollton. To be leased by lots of 40 arpents front with the depth most convenient to the leaders, excepting the lot on which stands the improvements, the pleasure and kitchen gardens, and which measures about four arpents and which could not be divided. These stands on that lot a dwelling story house in good order, newly painted and plastered, a store for the use of the house, kitchens, stables, sheds, hospital, provision stores, negro cabins, and a variety of other improvements. The pleasure gardens situated between the house and the public road, is covered with a great variety of fruit trees, ornamental trees and shrubs, tastefully laid out, and making beautiful walks. There are to be remarked four live oaks which are admired by every body. In the rear there is a beautiful walk of Pecaniers, and in the rear of the improvements a field well cultivated and producing an abundance of vegetables. This lot, as well as the others, contains the best pasture grounds and may be improved so as to afford a considerable income from the sale of milk, fruits, vegetables and provender. The Carrollton railroad, which runs thro' said property, facilitates at all times and in all seasons the easy transportation of produce. Said establishment for its pure air and the shade of its groves is the most desirable retirement in warm or sickly seasons, and may be converted into a Tivoli for public diversion. On the front of said property there is a large batture elevated to the level of the road, and well calculated for the establishment of saw mills, brick and wood yards. Persons wishing to lease part or the whole of said property are desired to call and examine the premises.

For terms, or any further informations, apply to Mr. Le Pilié, 102. Royal street. dec 4—1m 3tpw
