HEAD QUARTERS,
NEW ORLEANS, JAN. 21, 1836.

Orders,

THE services of the troops directed to be organised and held in readiness under the order of the 17th inst are now called for.

Immediate reinforcements are required to repair to the seat of war in Florida.

Such volunteer companies therefore, as are organised for the purpose, and all such persons as desire to offer for the service, will Rendezvous at the Barracks of the United States troops in New Orleans, at 11 o'clock A. M. on Wednesday the 3d day of February next, to be mustered and received into the service of the United States, for a term not exceeding three months.

Arms, equipments and camp equipage will then be furnished to them.

In the mean time those who wish to offer as volunteers will find an opportunity to enrol themselves and all necessary information, at the office of the Adjutant General in the south wing of the State House, New Orleans.

Every day brings more disastrous news from our brethern in Florida. Their whole country is laid waste of the troops who were assembled for its protection. one detachment has been destroyed; another part after repulsing the enemy in a desperate action are left, by their severe loss, and the necessary departure of the militia who assisted them, with scarcely force enough to protect themselves; a third cut off by the interposition of the savages, from assistance else where is now at their mercy unless they receive immediate aid by sea.

Under these circumstances an appeal is now made to the patriotism and generosity of Louisiana. Has such an appeal ever been made in vain.—shall it be now! Let the proud deeds be shewn in the promptness and zeal with which her sons now take up arms to aid their fellow citizens in danger and carry destruction to their savage foe.

By order of the Commander in Chief.
