into lots.

The balance of the late preperty Dousson, divided into lots.

These lots are worthy of the attention of speculators: a great many improvements will soon enhance their value; a market will be constructed near the grounds of that property: the wharves are in good order as far as the mult of Miller; and the aumerous benefits the owners will reap from the existence of the Citizens' Bank, make these lots a very fair object of investment, with positive chances of profit.

Terms—1, 2 and 3 years' credit, for notes satisfactorily endorsed, and morrange until final payment.
