In consequence of a remark made by us on Saturday, that the Louisiana volunteers in Florida had been greatly wanted, we received a communication stating that some of our friends had been so much gratified with the news, that they had not only maintained the truth of our remark, but had also strongly attested even by some of the volunteers who have returned.

The merchants' Exchange in Royal street will be closed this day at 12 o'clock, when a collision will be served up for us.
